Student Clubs & Organizations

American Institute of Architectural Students (AIAS)
The student chapter of AIAS provides professional and social opportunities for those interested in architecture.
Advisor: Mark Comeau 885.2387

American Nuclear Society (ANS)
TRCC’s chapter of ANS provides social & professional opportunities for students interested in Nuclear Power.
Advisor: Jim Sherrard 885.2393

Anime Club
The purpose of this club is to expand students’ awareness of Japanese culture through intellectual discussion and screening Japanese content.
Advisor: Sandra Jeknavorian 885.2345

Amnesty International
Working to protect human rights worldwide through letter-writing campaigns, peaceful vigils, and awareness campaigns. TRCC students, faculty and staff support and fight for the lives of people whose fundamental human rights are being abused.
Advisor: Chantal Krcmar 892.5788

Art Club
Gain gallery experience through art shows, travel to museums, and participate in local art exhibits.
Advisor: Sandra Jeknavorian 885.2345

Baseball Club
The baseball club was started as a way for our students to continue participation with America’s favorite pastime. The club welcomes all & hopes to participate in the New England Club Baseball Association Fall semester season.
Advisor: Matt Liscum 383.5240

Business Club
The organization provides opportunity for development of leadership skills as well as personal & professional growth and includes membership in Phi Beta Lambda.
Advisor: Irene Clampet 383.5231

Bicycle Club
The organization’s purpose is to increase awareness of the benefits of bicycling, increase bicycle use of the student body & to enjoy bicycling with other enthusiasts.

The Cultural Society
The club promotes international & cultural celebrations.
Advisors: Celeste Warner 383.5298
Frederick Knowles 383.5298

The Current
The Current provides students opportunities to design, write & publish a news magazine for the spring semester.
Advisor: Kevin Amenta 885.2366

The Diversity Club
The club promotes tolerance and acceptance of diversity and is inclusive of all diversity.

Early Childhood Education Club (ECE)
ECE provides opportunities to collaborate on events that engage children & families and activities that promote development of early childhood education professionals.
Advisor: Jennifer DeFrance 383.5214

Gay–Straight Alliance
The purpose of this organization is to support & promote Gay, Lesbian, and Bi-sexual students on campus, organize social activities and educate members.
Advisor: Phil Mayer, Jr 892.5749

GIVE (Get Involved in Volunteer Efforts)
TRCC’s community outreach club; activities chosen for their ability to directly impact a charitable organization.
Advisor: Jacqueline Sironen 885.2394

Golf Club
For students interested in learning how to play and to meet other golf enthusiasts.
Advisor: Jim Sherrard 885.2393

Lone Juliet
A group dedicated to promoting the well being & equality of women socially, politically, & economically. Activities focus on empowering women & eliminating sexism.
Advisor: Janet Hagen 892.5738

One1World
A student organization that promotes awareness of global poverty & provides humanitarian aid through fundraising to help alleviate human suffering due to extreme poverty.
Advisor: Steven Neufeld 383.5233

Paintball Club
For those who are interested in paintball, this is the club for you.
TRCCPAINTBALLCLUB@YAHOO.COM

For more information about existing Student Organizations, or if you’re interested in starting your own, contact Student Programs in Room F211 or email us at studentprograms@trcc.commnet.edu
Phi Theta Kappa-Alpha Mu Gamma Chapter
PTK combines scholarship, leadership and citizenship to provide a comprehensive and rewarding learning experience for its members. To join, you must have completed at least 18 credit hours (all 100 level courses or above) at Three Rivers and have a GPA of 3.5.
Advisors: Joan Graham  383.5228
Nancy Scrivano  383.5250
Sarah Selke  892.5706

Philosophy Club
The TRCC Philosophy Club is a group interested in cultivating a diverse yet intensive dialogue on many philosophical issues & readings. Anyone interested in critical and creative thinking is welcome to join.
Advisor: Theodore Bach
PLARISTOTLE@GMAIL.COM

Psychology Club
Psychology Club is designed to enhance the experience of studying psychology at TRCC by supporting psychology-focused activities such as topical discussions, guest speakers, promoting research and support for student activity, including conferences, service learning, & career networking.
Advisor: Dov Kugelmass  892.5791

Quill and Brush
Students publish an annual art and literary magazine featuring art, fiction, non-fiction and poetry.
Advisors: Janet Hagen  892.5738
Sandra Jeknavorian  885.2345

SCHOLAR
The Student CT History Organization of Local Action and Resource (SCHOLAR) is a team of student volunteers that pursue a mission of service to museums and historical societies throughout southeastern CT.
Advisor: Peter Patouris  892.5703

Senior Student Ambassadors
This organization promotes the benefits of lifelong learning for older adults.
Advisor: Susan Topping  892.5763

Ska Club
Ska Club promotes ska music appreciation throughout the school community, giving current TRCC ska fans a place to discuss the culture of ska and offering group trips to local ska shows.
Advisor: Jacqueline Sironen  885.2394

Ski Club
This organization is for the snowboarding and/or skiing enthusiast– all skill levels welcome!
Advisor: Tony Benoit  885.2386

SPIE (International Society for Optics and Photonics)
The student chapter of SPIE explores the inter-disciplinary applications of optical science and technology. The TRCC chapter’s mission is outreach in optics in education.
Advisor: Judy Donnelly  885.2353

Student Government
The official “student voice” at TRCC. Membership consists of an executive board, representatives from each TRCC student organization and open representatives. Student Government is responsible for the allocation of the Student Activity Fund.
Advisors: Karen Westerberg  885.2333
Chantal Krcmar  892.5788

Student Nurses Association (SNA)
The Student Nurses Association promotes health education and awareness for students interested in the nursing profession.
Advisor: Anne Lamondy  383.5218

Student Performing Arts Group (SPAG)
This organization promotes all aspects of the performing arts by producing theater, music, spoken word, and other performing arts events.
Advisor: William Lopez  885.2389
SPAG1234@GMAIL.COM

Trailblazers
For those who are interested in outdoor recreation, this is the club for you.
Advisor: William Dopirak  892.5758

TRUE (Three Rivers United Environmentalists)
For students interested in environmental, organic and fair trade issues.
TRUE.TRCC@GMAIL.COM

Veterans’ Organization
This organization assists and supports fellow veterans in their transition into the educational environment and provides an opportunity for a Veteran student to develop and expand social relationships with other people who have served in the armed services.
Advisor: Jim Hutchins  383.5244