VII. Disabilities Statement:

If you are a student with a disability and believe you will need accommodations for this class, it is your responsibility to contact the Disabilities Counseling Services at 892-5751.

To avoid any delay in the receipt of accommodations, you should contact the counselor as soon as possible.

Please note that I cannot provide accommodations based upon disability until I have received an accommodation letter from the Disabilities Counselor. Your cooperation is appreciated.

VIII. Course Outline:

Section #1 – Reading Skills, Logical Thinking, Academic Discussions

Section #2 – Outlining Articles, Reaction Papers, Oral Presentations

Section #3 – Research, Academic Formats, Final Paper

The lengths of the sections listed above will be determined upon the needs of the class but each should be approximately five weeks long.

No class on:

09-04-05 - Labor Day

11-22-05 - Unless make-up day required

IX. Evaluation Procedures

Your final grade will be determined by a combination of exams, a short paper, and class participation.

Reaction Papers (5)	50%	(10 points each)
Final Paper	25%
Oral Presentation	15%
Class Participation	10%
	100%

The paper will be a mini-research paper based upon the student's research into the criminal justice career of their choice. This choice must be approved by the instructor. The paper will be at least 5 but no more than 7 pages long.

The paper will be in APA style and will be written in Times New Roman 12 point type with standard margins. Failure to use the APA format will result in a 25 point penalty. The paper will include a cover page that notes the title of the paper and all the relevant course and student information. There must be at least three cited sources listed in the bibliography, one of which must be from an academic journal.

All work that is turned in for a grade must be typed except reaction papers, as they will be completed in class.

All grades will be posted on Vista. The grades will be expressed in a point value. For example: the final paper is worth 25 points, a grade of between 0 and 25 points will be recorded. The total amount of points earned during the semester will correspond to the grade scale listed below.
