Students learn how to read serious literature, how to develop an interpretation, and how to explain and support their ideas in writing. Through the study of selected works of fiction, poetry, and drama, students learn the elements of textual analysis and become familiar with the ways in which other critical approaches affect interpretation. In addition to continued instruction in composition, students are required to read and write frequently..

Prerequisite: ENG 101*

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

- Identify the literary genres of poetry, fiction, and drama, and some of the forms and structures within those genres.
- Use the basic elements of formalist criticism to analyze a work of literature. These elements include such things as theme, tone, point of view, characterization, and figurative language.
- Identify and employ other critical strategies beyond formalism to analyze literature, including some of the following: psychological, feminist, new historical, cultural, Marxist, post-colonial, reader response.
- Articulate in both classroom discussion and written assignments their perspectives about both meaning and structure in a work of literature, and support their perspectives with specifics from the text.
- Provide evidence of effective writing strategies including planning, revision, proofreading, and reflection on writing choices

- Write analytical, evaluative academic essays about literature which present interpretations and support them with evidence from texts.
- Use MLA citation to document references to texts.
- Locate, evaluate, and incorporate research from valid secondary sources in their academic essays.

Required Texts

- Henderson, Day, and Waller. Literature and Ourselves, 6th edition
- Díaz, Junot. The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao

IMPORTANT: You must have your books to participate in class discussions and assignments. Do not wait until the last minute to purchase The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao, as you may have trouble getting it on time and will earn a zero for the days you come to class without it.

EXPLANATION OF ASSIGNMENT AND GRADES

ESSAYS (70)%: During this session you will be required to write four formal essays. As my expectations increase, so will the grade percentage awarded for each essay. The essay assignments will be handed out in class and will focus on the thematic units we will have been reading and discussing.

PEER REVIEW (15)%: Before turning in your essay, you will be required to develop a formal typed draft of your essay to bring to class for a peer review workshop (along with copies of your draft to share with your peers). (Number of copies is designated on syllabus.) You will be assigned into groups, where you will be responsible to give feedback to your peers based on the requirements handed out. After you receive written input from your peers, it is expected you will then revise your essay. If you miss a peer review day, come to class late, or come to class without a fully typed draft with the required amount of copies, you will not be able to participate in peer review. (You will not be allowed to leave class either to make copies, no exceptions, such as “the computers in the lab weren’t working.”) Having a friend or relative review your paper does not count as peer review either. Finally, when you turn in your final paper, it must be placed in a pocket folder with the original essay (before peer review) and the peer reviews.

Paper Format: All formal essays should follow MLA format guidelines: double-spaced (not triple or two-and-a-half spaces), one-inch margins, and size 12 fonts. Be forewarned that if you include extra spaces between paragraphs or type in extra-large margins or fonts, etc., your paper will be returned without a grade or it will affect your grade negatively. Pet Peeve: Sloppy papers. For an example of what the formatting of your paper should look like see pages 34-39.

CLASS PARTICIPATION (15%): Your participation (or lack of) in class will affect your final grade. (Expect to work in class by being prepared to participate in large and small group work, do in-class writing assignments, and take quizzes.) *Missed assignments and quizzes may not be made up.

OTHER POLICIES

Deadlines: All work is to be submitted on the day it is due at the beginning of class. If you come in late or submit the work after class, it will be considered late (which includes essays). Late essays will be given either a pass or a fail (C or an F). Quizzes and in-class work may not be made up. If you have an emergency, please contact me to make other arrangements. Only in a documented emergency will I accept late and/or email submissions, which must be approved by me. (Keep in mind that “My computer crashed,” “My printer ran out of ink,” “I left the assignment on my desk,” and/or “Printers aren’t working in the lab” are not valid excuses for late papers. PLAN AHEAD.)

Attendance: In order for the class to be successful it is important that you attend regularly. If you must miss class, please remember that you will still be held accountable for the material covered in class and all assignments that are due that day. (An excused absent includes, for example, illness and/or injury and requires written verification.) Eight absences is an automatic fail.

Late Arrivals: Please be in class on time. Within the first five minutes of class I will take attendance. If you arrive after the five minutes, I will mark you late, which will affect your final grade. (I lock the doors.)

College Emergencies: Procedures will be discussed in class.

Breaks: Unless it is an emergency, refrain from leaving the class at all times. Doing so is disruptive and will affect your grade negatively. (I lock the door.)

Tutoring: Three Rivers has an excellent writing center located next to the library, C113. Receiving help through email is also available. Include your name, student ID, and a brief explanation of the assignment and send your work as an attachment to TRWritingCenter@trcc.commnet.edu. (Because of the large number of students receiving assistance, I recommend that you set up an appointment ahead of time; if you submit your essay via email give yourself 24-48 hours turnaround time.)

Grades: For students who quit attending class and miss 60% or more, the UF notation (Unearned Failure) will be entered into their final grades, which will affect their financial aid.

Cell phones: Turn off any electronic devices not associated with the class and put all phones away in your backpacks, etc. (I do not want to see any phones on the desks or your laps.) (It’s only 75 minutes of your life!) No laptops are allowed. If I should catch you texting, I will stop what I am doing to ask you to turn off your phone and you will get a zero for the day (absence), as, technically, you are not a part of the class if your attention is elsewhere.

Class cancellations: If class is cancelled, a notice will be posted outside the door. I will also try to send you an email, so please make sure you have signed up for a TRCC email account. School cancellations due to bad weather will be posted on the TRCC homepage and also recorded on the school’s main phone number: 860-215-9000. To receive a text message of closings and emergencies, sign into your Commnet account and follow these directions (located on the bottom left side):

TITLE IX

Title IX

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 that prohibits sex-based discrimination of any kind in the educational programs or activities of federally-financed institutions, which includes Three Rivers Community College. (You can thank feminists for this amendment!)

Board of Regents for Higher Education and Connecticut State Colleges and Universities Policy Regarding Sexual Misconduct Reporting, Support Services and Processes Policy:

Public Act No. 14-11: An act concerning sexual assault, stalking and intimate partner violence on campus: “The Board of Regents for Higher Education (BOR) in conjunction with the Connecticut State Colleges and Universities (CSCU) is committed to ensuring that each member of every BOR governed college and university community has the opportunity to participate fully in the process of education free from acts of sexual misconduct, intimate partner violence and stalking.”

Title IX Statement of Policy:

“Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 protects students, employees, applicants for admission and employment, and other persons from all forms of sex discrimination, including discrimination based on gender identity or failure to conform to stereotypical notions of masculinity or femininity. All students are protected by Title IX, regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, part or full-time status, disability, race, or national origin, in all aspects of educational programs and activities.”

How to Report an Incident: There is no time limit for reporting sexual misconduct. Contact Edward A. Derr, Student Diversity and Title IX Coordinator. * Office A116 - 860.215.9255
