OFFICE: ROOM # C 126

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A study of the principles and practices of modern public relations as they apply to profit making and not for profit organizations. Students study a practical approach to the methods of establishing and maintaining positive relationships between an organization and its stakeholders. These stakeholders or “publics” include customers, employees, competitors, stockholders, vendors, government agencies, and society in general. Topics include special events planning, media relations planning and effective communications. Ethical and social responsibility and negative publicity are also discussed. Students demonstrate their learning by developing a public relations campaign.

REQUIRED TEXT:

Seitel, Fraser: THE PRACTICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS: 13TH edition. Pearson Higher Education (Prentice Hall), New Jersey: 2017.
