Course Description:

Students are taught how to read serious literature, how to develop an interpretation, and how to explain and support their ideas in writing. Through the study of selected works of fiction, poetry, and drama, students are expected to learn the traditional elements of textual analysis and become familiar with the ways in which other critical approaches affect interpretation. In addition to continued instruction in composition, students are required to read continually and write frequently in preparation for every class.

Required Texts: No substitutions of different editions. Textbooks are mandatory and must be in your possession during class.

The Bedford Introduction to Literature, Tenth Edition, Michael Meyer

(ISBN-10: 1-4576-0827-8 | ISBN-13: 978- 1-4576-0827-8)

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of ENG 102 – Literature and Composition:

- Identify the literary genres of poetry, fiction, and drama, and some of the forms and structures within those genres.
- Use the basic elements of formalist criticism to analyze a work of literature. These elements include such things as theme, tone, point of view, characterization, and figurative language.
- Identify and employ other critical strategies beyond formalism to analyze literature, including some of the following: psychological, feminist, new historical, cultural, Marxist, post-colonial, reader response.
- Articulate in both classroom discussion and written assignments their perspectives about both meaning and structure in a work of literature, and support their perspectives with specifics from the text.
- Provide evidence of effective writing strategies including planning, revision, proofreading, and reflection on writing choices
- Write analytical, evaluative academic essays about literature which present interpretations and support them with evidence from texts.
- Use MLA citation to document references to texts.
- Locate, evaluate, and incorporate research from valid secondary sources in their academic essays.

TRCC Department Guidelines

Writing Requirements

Students are encouraged to write more independently. It is recommended that students continue to incorporate the draft process into their writing experiences, however, students' final grades on each assignment reflect finished product, not process.

Guidelines:

- 20 pages of finished academic writing: at least 3 essays: one of which should be a minimum of 6-8 pages.
- At least one essay should be independently researched and incorporate both primary and secondary sources.
- In-class graded writing (exams, reading responses, in-class exercises etc.).

Attendance, Class Participation, And Grading:

Consistent attendance at class meetings is crucial to your success in this course. Absence will affect your attendance grade, however, one absence may be excused at the instructor's discretion due to illness (doctor's note), active military, emergency police/fire service or a death in the immediate family (obit). Work and car trouble are not excused absences.

I do teach a second section of this class – you may check with me about attending that section if you have a conflict: Tuesday 6:30 – 9:15 p.m. Room D203 / Wednesday 6:30 – 9:15 p.m. Room D222

Please notify me if you have an emergency so that I can accommodate any makeup requirements. Otherwise, being absent is your choice and it is entirely up to you to find out what was covered. Grades are based on all work done in the course. Assignments not completed will impact your final grade. Incompletes are not given.

Homework & Quizzes	10%
- Reading and Lecture Content as well as Peer Review Work
Attendance, Class Participation & Journal	10%
First Semester Essay / Reader Response	10%
Mid-Semester Exam	15%
Second Semester Paper / Critical Approach	20%
Third Semester Essay / Research	20%
Final Examination	15%

Late Work:

- Homework may not be submitted via e-mail or after the start of class. Quizzes are random and take place in the first 10 minutes of class – there is no make-up. (I drop 1 homework/quiz grade).
- Late Papers will not receive full credit, and will not be accepted after one week past the due date. The final semester essay will not be accepted late due to time restraints on grade submission.

To achieve a passing grade, you should:

- * Attend class regularly (please do not arrive late, leave early or repeatedly leave and return while class is in session)
- * Complete all reading and homework assignments on time
- * Contribute regularly to class discussions
- * Take time to think about what you have read and to prepare for class discussion and writing assignments
- * No Cell Phones should be seen or heard during class.

Papers and Homework: Work must be submitted typed, in proper MLA formatting, and fully annotated. Have all drafts and research available if requested by the instructor. Modern Language Association Style (MLA): When you use outside sources to write your research papers, use MLA style for documentation purposes (this includes electronic journals and the web). The textbook has sample sections on parenthetical documentation, and instructions for a Works Cited page. Online information: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>

Student MUST BE ABLE TO CHECK THEIR TRCC E-MAIL ADDRESSES OR THE ADDRESS LISTED AS PRIMARY ON THEIR PROFILE.

Naming format for E-MAIL Attachments: LASTNAME_FIRSTINITIAL (i.e. Rametta_J)

Students must complete 20 pages of written work during the semester in order to meet the requirements of this course and attain a passing grade – please take careful note of the guidelines for each assignment – all 3 papers must be submitted in order to pass the class.

Intellectual Dishonesty: Cheating on exams and plagiarism of another's words or ideas will result in an automatic F for the test, paper, or for the entire course. Whether conscious or unconscious, plagiarism is a serious academic offence. Your textbook and the TRCC website provide ample ways to avoid plagiarizing another's work, words, or ideas. If you have any doubts, please see me.

Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of another person's words or ideas in your writing. If you use any ideas, thoughts, writing, quotes, or even paraphrase some other writer's thinking, you must acknowledge that person.

Academic Integrity / Plagiarism Policy:

The effective operation of any organization is dependent on the honesty and goodwill of its members. In an organization devoted to the pursuit of knowledge, acting with integrity is essential to effective teaching and learning. Furthermore, academic dishonesty erodes the legitimacy of every degree awarded by the College. To emphasize the importance of academic integrity, Three Rivers Community College adheres to the following policy in addition to the Student Discipline Policy, sections 2:10 and 3:1-10, as provided by the Board of Trustees of Connecticut Community Colleges. Since collaboration is central to the learning community, Three Rivers wishes to emphasize that this policy is not intended to discourage collaboration when appropriate, approved, and disclosed.

Instructors at the TRCC are committed to developing and actively protecting a class environment in which respect must be shown to everyone in order to facilitate and encourage the expression, testing, understanding, and creation of a variety of ideas and opinions. Rude, sarcastic, obscene, or disrespectful speech and disruptive behavior have a negative impact on everyone's learning and that person will be removed from the class. Alcohol or drug use is NOT permitted at any time.

Weather Cancellations: (see sign up tutorial below)

Call 860-215-9000 or go online to: www.trcc.commnet.edu. Class is only cancelled for weather or other emergencies if TRCC closes and you receive an alert. The myCommnet Alert Notification System will also be used to deliver important information to students, faculty, and staff regarding weather-related class cancellations. The system delivers both email messages, and text messages over cellular phones to those individuals who are registered. To register, log on to your myCommnet account at <http://my.commnet.edu> and follow the link to myCommnet Alert.

In the very unlikely event that I need to cancel class for any personal reason, I will notify the class via TRCC e-mail.

Disabilities:

If you have a disability that may affect your progress in this course, please meet with a Disability Service Provider (DSP) as soon as possible. Please note that accommodations cannot be provided until you provide written authorization from a DSP.

TRCC Disabilities Service Providers Counseling & Advising Office - Room A-119

Chris Scarborough (part-time) (860) 892-5751 Room A-119	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ·Learning Disabilities ·ADD/ADHD ·Autism

Please note that an instructor cannot provide disability accommodations until a student provides the necessary paperwork from the college's Office of Disability Services to the instructor. Also, accommodations take effect when the instructor receives the paperwork from a student, and accommodations will not be provided retroactively.

Digication Statement:

As a student, you will maintain an online learning portfolio using a TRCC designed template. Through this electronic tool, you can see your own growth in college-wide learning. It may even help you to find the major that is a match to you. You can keep this Digication account after graduation, too. A Three Rivers General Education Assessment Team will select random works and review them so that we can improve the college experience for all. Your name will not be attached to any of the assessment work; it is private. This tool will also be a "place" where you can connect your learning from the classroom, school, and life. Sometimes when you look at all of the work you have done and think about it, you learn something else. In Digication, you will be able to make other portfolios, too. It's like a file cabinet with the ability to have multiple but separate files. What is exciting about the electronic tool is when you look inside you will see you are developing in new ways! Look at your class outline to see what assignments to post into the TRCC Template; you may post your own choices, too. Have fun in learning!

College Withdrawal Policy:

A student who finds it necessary to discontinue a course once class has met must provide notice to the Registrar. Withdrawal forms are available at the Registrar's office, both on campus and at the Sub-base. Non-punitive "W" grades are assigned to withdrawal requests. Students who do not obtain an official withdrawal, but simply stop attending classes, run the risk of receiving an "F" grade for the course. (Last Day to Withdraw - Spring 2015 Semester is May 11th)

"N" Grade Policy:

The N Grade is assigned to students when there is no basis for a grade. This would apply to students who never came to class as well as to those who didn't attend or participate long enough to be graded. The N grade is used to distinguish between earned failures (F), official withdrawals (W) and students who stop attending or participating before there is a basis for a grade. (In most cases there would be no basis for a grade for students who stop attending or participating before the 60% point.)

Reading and Writing - Class discussion is important to literary study, which is largely an interpretative art. We will share analysis in order to clarify and aid in the understanding of our reading, and also to hone the skill necessary for intelligent reading and interpretation. This is a cooperative exercise in problem solving, and we all lose if you are absent or do not contribute to the process. During the semester, you will be asked to respond to or present some aspect of the assigned reading sometimes to provide us with a frame of reference for class discussion.

ATTENDANCE AND CLASS PARTICIPATION - (10%) - Weekly

Attendance is taken at the beginning and end of each class, and being absent at the beginning or end of class counts as an absence. Excused absences are documented illness or death in the family. One letter grade is deducted from your attendance/participation grade for missed classes.

HOMEWORK, ATTENDANCE AND CLASS PARTICIPATION - (10%) – Weekly

Homework and in class assignments are due during each class and can only be handed in late with an excused absence. Sending homework via e-mail during or after class time will not be accepted.

In-class quizzes will occur to reinforce reading and determine proficiency of in class concepts gathered from note taking and discussion. Please put your name on all homework and put it in the class folder.

(FIRST) RESPONSE ESSAY / ASSIGNED AUTHORS - (20%)

Reader response to literature is the key to understanding and appreciating how a work relates to your own thoughts and impressions. Students will practice their writing skills, including the development of a thesis statement, by writing a 5-page paper that will focus on the reader response critical concept (as discussed in class). Students may also choose to compare/contrast some literary element of two or more of the readings.

Each student will choose either a poem or short story or play, highlighting various authors from the text and their accomplishments and philosophy of that author. This paper will be from a reader response perspective, using this critical approach to do a analysis of the piece from your point of view. Secondly, it should also inform the class about the background of the author including: a brief biography, highlights of his/her major works and achievements, influence of the author (American, European, Asian, etc.) and the historical context of the time period during which the author was writing. A brief plot summary should be incorporated to explain the characters (protagonist, antagonist, etc. and point of view (first person, third person, omniscient, etc.). Please prepare a synopsis of the paper to present to the class on the date assigned to each student. All literary reference sources for this paper should be cited on a “Works Cited” page at the end of the paper.

Format:

1. 5 Pages, typed, double-spaced, MLA documentation, 12pt. font (non script) and 1” margins.
 2. You can rely on your text with 1 outside source, both will be listed on a Works Cited page (journal articles and books). Secondary sources are not a substitute for your own ideas or reading of the works. Paraphrasing and summarizing are always preferable to direct quotation. If you use more than two words of a source, you must use quotation marks. Remember, too, that in your essay all ideas, whether paraphrased, summarized or quoted, must be documented according to MLA Style.

MID-SEMESTER EXAM - (15%)

This will be a comprehensive mid-semester exam. It will be based on identifying passages and literary concepts from the various texts and a discussion of their relevance along with a short answer section that relates to ideas and concepts covered during the course of the first half of the semester. There will also questions relating directly to class notes and the assigned readings from the Norton textbook.

(SECOND) CRITICAL ESSAY/ GROUP TOPICS & ORAL PRESENTATION - (15%)

The second critical essay will involve further research of literary sources with at least 2 outside Sources (journal articles and books) and the textbook citation from each is required on the written Works Cited page. Student will each choose a critical approach and write a paper with a length of 7 page paper per student. Groups will be formed for the purpose of in class collaboration, peer review and collegial cooperation.

Oral Interpretation of Literature and Peer Review are integral parts of this project. In this presentation, you should consider your audience and understand that a simple reading of your paper will be insufficient. Each group will be evaluated by the class, as well as by me, so please be creative. Presentations should incorporate audio and/or visual aids, such as power point, posters, handouts, audio clips, etc. The presentations will be by groups and should be 15-20 minutes (5 minutes per presenter). You should be well organized, concise, and comprehensive, with an introduction, a thesis, and a conclusion. And of course, it requires practice for time constraints and for clarity before you present it to the class. Remember, too much text on a slide is distracting. Add information orally to what is on your slides and make it easy for your readers to follow.

Format:

1. 7 Pages, typed, double-spaced, MLA documentation, 12pt. font (non script) and 1" margins.
2. You can rely on your text but at least 2 outside sources should be used and listed on a Works Cited page (journal articles and books). Secondary sources are not a substitute for your own ideas or reading of the works. Paraphrasing and summarizing are always preferable to direct quotation. If you use more than two words of a source, you must use quotation marks. Remember, too, that in your essay all ideas, whether paraphrased, summarized or quoted, must be documented according to MLA Style.

(THIRD PAPER) CRITICAL APPROACH RESEARCH ESSAY – (20%)

This is a thesis driven paper that should contain a chosen critical approach and analysis of your choosing.

Whatever author and topic you choose, you must determine a position, a thesis that is your own. Your thesis may be developed in a variety of ways including such as comparing/contrasting protagonists or themes from different texts. A written critical assessment of a text that begins with your thesis and the development of an argument supported by textual evidence, support from research of literary critics and an in-depth assessment of the literary text based on genre, author and historical context as well as a chosen critical approach.

Format:

1. 8 Pages, typed, double-spaced, MLA documentation, 12pt. font (non script) and 1" margins.
2. You can rely on your text but at least 2 outside sources should be listed on a Works Cited page (journal articles and books). Secondary sources are not a substitute for your own ideas or reading of the works. Paraphrasing and summarizing are always preferable to direct quotation. If you use more than two words of a source, you must use quotation marks. Remember, too, that in your essay all ideas, whether paraphrased, summarized or quoted, must be documented according to MLA Style.

FINAL EXAMINATION

This will be a comprehensive final exam but focused on the readings in the second half of the semester. It will be based on identifying passages from the various texts and a discussion of their relevance along with a short essay answer section that relates to ideas and concepts covered during the course of the semester. There will also questions relating directly to class notes.

I understand all the previously explained requirements and realize that by continuing in this class I am indicating my acceptance of and compliance with these guidelines.

[Academic integrity is essential to a useful education. Failure to act with academic integrity severely limits a person's ability to succeed in the classroom and beyond. Furthermore, academic dishonesty erodes the legitimacy of every degree awarded by the College. In this class and in the course of your academic career, present only your own best work; clearly document the sources of the material you use from others; and act at all times with honor.]

Further, I pledge that I will not be given or will receive any unauthorized assistance in completing my assignments and I assert that the work I present in my assignments will be my own original efforts.
