How to use this chart: Column 1 lists the the subject we will study that week the order closely follows your text. Column two indicates the dates that week begins and ends. Note the New week begins on a Monday and ends on the Sunday following. Column 3 tells what chapter you are to read that week. Column 4 Indicates the name of the Gallery due (ex. Wk 1) and the date it is due. Note Gallery assignments given are due at the beginning of the following week. Column 5 is the name and date due of your weekly original Threads. In order to give your fellow students a chance to respond tyour original thread is due the Friday after it is assigned. Column 6 indicates the name of and date due for your 2 responses to the threads of fellow students. Column 7 indicates the due dates of your papers and projects. Finally the last column gives you an idea of the number of points you can earn if you receive full credit for the assignments due that week.
