Essay on Cross Cultural Communication: 10%

Students will read and analyze materials in packet and synthesize into essay form

Essay on Self: 10%

Discuss with a person close to you how they perceive your presentation of self. Within that conversation discuss how that person perceives your ability to communicate effectively. Reflect on these questions:

1. How do you choose to be seen by others?
2. Do they see you as you would choose to be seen?
3. Will this persona work effectively within the many divergent arenas you will find yourself in as you become part of a Criminal Justice Profession?
4. What do you plan to do this semester to become more aware of self and an effective communicator?

Reflective writing/ Planning Process 10%

Exam: 20%

Remainder of assignments and grade points to be determined as part of the Strategic Plan.

Statement Regarding Digication and Assessment

All students are required to maintain an online learning portfolio using a Three Rivers Community College designed template; e-portfolio/digication

Please be advised that the Three River's General Education Assessment Team will select random works from the student submissions.

Criminal Justice Students are urged to select the privacy level restricted to viewable by self or viewable by Three Rivers Community. Avoid placing your documents on the internet.

You will locate the e-portfolio-digication tutorial by accessing the

- TRCC homepage
- Clicking the link to learning resources.
- Scrolling to e-portfolio/digication icon.

You will enter Cross Cultural Essay into e-portfolio/digication

Please submit proof of submission with your essay.

YOU are responsible for all lecture or class notes and all work missed during your absence. YOU are encouraged to get contact information from a classmate to ensure you have access to all missed material.

Academic Dishonesty

Definitions of Academic Dishonesty

General Definition

(Student Discipline Policy, section 2:10, Board of Trustees of Connecticut Community Colleges)

Academic Dishonesty shall in general mean conduct which has as its intent or effect the false representation of a student's academic performance, including but not limited to (a) cheating on an examination, (b) collaborating with others in work to be presented, contrary to the stated rules of the course, (c) plagiarizing, including the submission of others' ideas or papers (whether purchased, borrowed, or otherwise obtained) as one's own, (d) stealing or having unauthorized access to examination or course materials, (e) falsifying records of laboratory or other data, (f) submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course, and (g) knowingly and intentionally assisting another student in any of the above, including assistance in an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed.

Academic Dishonesty in a Service Learning, Practicum, Internship, Co-operative, or Fieldwork environment

Conduct in community settings entered by a student as part of coursework must be equally characterized by integrity and honesty. Dishonest conduct proscribed under this policy includes but is not limited to (a) making false statements to community partners about the student's skills, credentials and accomplishments, (b) making false statements to community partners or the instructor about progress in the work the student has agreed to do in the community, including supplying false documentation of work, (c) failing to abide by the rules and policies of the community partners that the student agreed to accept as a condition of entrance into the community setting, (d) failing to return materials belonging to the community partner or instructor (e) violating the ethical principles common to professional researchers, including violation of confidentiality or anonymity agreements with research subjects, deceiving or harming research subjects, or coercing participation in research

Cellular Phones and Beepers

Students are notified that cellular phones and beepers are allowed in class or in the Learning Resource Center only if they are turned off or turned to a silent mode. Under no circumstances are phones to be answered in class. When there are extenuating circumstances that require that a student be available by phone or beeper, the student should speak to the instructor prior to class so that together they can arrive at an agreement.

Please be aware that there is an expectation of PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION when emailing your professor. Your professor will not return emails from Thursday evening @ 6:30 through Monday at noon. Do not assume your email has been received; if you have not heard from your professor within a 24 hour turn around Monday-Thursday, please resend or use another method for contact.

Early warning notification:

Students experiencing academic difficulty and/or chronic absenteeism will be notified of their class standing.
