COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students are taught how to read serious literature, how to develop an interpretation, and how to explain and support their ideas in writing. Through the study of selected works of fiction, poetry, and drama, students are expected to learn the traditional elements of textual analysis and become familiar with the ways in which other critical approaches affect interpretation. In addition to continued instruction in composition, students are required to read continually and write frequently in preparation for every class.

REQUIRED TEXTS

The Bedford Introduction to Literature. 11th ed. Michael Meyer.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of ENG 102, students should be able to:

- Identify the literary genres of poetry, fiction, and drama, and some of the forms and structures within those genres.
- Use the basic elements of formalist criticism to analyze a work of literature. These elements include such things as theme, tone, point of view, characterization, and figurative language.

- Identify and employ other critical strategies beyond formalism to analyze literature, including some of the following: psychological, feminist, new historical, cultural, Marxist, post-colonial, reader response.
- Articulate in both classroom discussion and written assignments their perspectives about both meaning and structure in a work of literature, and support their perspectives with specifics from the text.
- Provide evidence of effective writing strategies including planning, revision, proofreading, and reflection on writing choices.
- Write analytical, evaluative academic essays about literature which present interpretations and support them with evidence from texts.
- Use MLA citation to document references to texts.
- Locate, evaluate, and incorporate research from valid secondary sources in their academic essays.

ASSIGNMENTS

Essays

You will be asked to write three formal essays on topics generated from your reading and class discussions. Essay #1 will be 4-6 pages in length; Essay #2 will be 5-7 pages; Essay #3 will be 6-8 pages.

Although further, more specific criteria will be given out for each assignment, general guidelines are as follows: while it is important that you demonstrate your ability to respond to the readings, explore the draft process, and complete all assignments, all essays will be graded on the quality of the finished product which will take into account grammar, rhetorical strategies, and intellectual complexity, together with evidence of research skills, documentation, use of quotations and paraphrases, and ability to sustain an argument in clear prose.

Only those students who hand in the completed essay on time and receive a grade below C- (70) will have the option to revise the paper; however, all such re-writes must first be discussed with me. I will only count the re-write grade. Essay 3 may not be rewritten.

ALL WORK MUST BE COMPLETED ON TIME, TYPED AND FOLLOW MLA FORMAT. LATE ESSAYS WILL BE ACCEPTED UP TO ONE WEEK PAST THE DUE DATE BUT WILL BE DOWNGRADED ONE FULL LETTER GRADE. LATE ESSAYS MAY NOT BE REVISED.

Short Writings

In addition to formal essays, we will be doing both in and out of class writing assignments. If you have not done the reading, you will not be able to successfully complete these assignments which will include quizzes, summaries, short essays, etc. You cannot make up these assignments or rewrite them.

Class Participation

Constructive participation in both discussion and writers' workshop is expected; therefore, it is important that you come to class ready to discuss the reading and writing assignments. If you are not prepared, you will find it difficult to participate in class conversations and your work will reflect your lack of engagement.

Grading: Grades will be determined as follows:

Essay 1: Fiction	15%
Essay 2: Poetry	15%
Essay 3: Drama	20%
Short writings, in-class writing, projects, quizzes, etc.	25%
Midterm Exam	10%
Final Exam	10%
Class Participation	5%

You can check your grades in the My Grades link on the left-hand menu of Blackboard.

COURSE POLICY

Attendance

Attendance is a requirement. In-class assignments and Writing Workshops cannot be made up.

Writing Workshops

Failure to attend and participate in a Writing Workshop day will result in a 10 point reduction on that essay.

Classroom Decorum

You are being disruptive if you are late, leave class early, text, or allow your cell phone to ring. I expect you to come to class on time with all the necessary texts and remain in the classroom for the entire period. Disruptive or inappropriate classroom behavior will have a negative effect on your grade.

Withdrawal Dates

Students may officially withdraw at the Registrar's Office up until December 9.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the intentional use of someone else's words or ideas. It is a serious violation of academic standards that is subject to one or more of the following penalties: a failing grade for the paper; a failing grade for the course; a report to the administrative authorities for appropriate action (i.e. a notation on the student's permanent record, suspension, or expulsion). Please familiarize yourself with the Academic Integrity policy in our on-line catalogue.

Disabilities

If you have a disability that may affect your progress in this course, please meet with a Disability Service Provider (DSP) as soon as possible. Accommodations cannot be provided until you provide written authorization from a DSP in the Counseling & Advising Office – Room A119.

Communication

I encourage you to communicate with me and each other via the Messages tool on our Blackboard course site. Click on Messages on the left menu in order to access this feature, which allows you to communicate with course members; however, please be mindful that any written communication with me should be regarded as a formal communication and follow standard written English conventions.

I will communicate with the class via Blackboard Announcement and through the internal Message system in our Blackboard shell. You are responsible for checking Blackboard at least once a week for any information.

Digication Statement

All students are required to maintain an online learning portfolio using a TRCC designed template. Through this electronic tool, students can see their own growth in college-wide learning. The student can keep and continue to use the Digication account after graduation. A Three Rivers General Education Assessment Team will select random works to improve the college experience for all. No names will be attached to the assessment work; it will remain private and anonymous for college improvement purposes. In class outlines, students will find recommended assignments which support various college-wide learning abilities. The student will have a tool which can integrate their learning from the classroom, school, and life and allow for another opportunity of learning at TRCC! Students will be able to make multiple portfolios.
