Course Description:

ESOL 060 prepares non-native English speakers for the demands of ESOL 061 and other college-level courses. This is an integrated writing, reading, speaking, and listening course which includes intermediate grammar work. Students will gain experience writing and refine sentence level writing skills. Reading assignments stress comprehension and vocabulary building. Students will improve speaking and listening skills through pair work and small group discussions. This course does not satisfy an English requirement or an elective in any degree program, nor do its credits count toward graduation.

Course Objectives:

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

Writing

- Identify and revise sentence fragments and run-on sentences.
- Effectively respond to prompts in class writing journal.

Reading

- Use reading strategies such as making predictions, scanning for details, and skimming for main ideas.
- Increase reading comprehension and vocabulary using non-fiction work, selections from textbooks, and authentic materials.

Speaking and Listening

- Respond appropriately to detailed spoken instructions/prompts.
- Demonstrate confidence in level appropriate one-on-one and small group discussions.

Grammar

- Demonstrate reasonable control of intermediate grammatical structures in practical and academic contexts.

College Withdrawal Policy:

A student who finds it necessary to discontinue a course once class has met must provide notice to the Registrar. Simply, fill out the withdrawal form and give it to the Registrar's office. Withdrawal forms are available at the Registrar's office and at the office at the sub-base. Non-punitive "W" grades are assigned to withdrawal requests. An Instructor's signature is required after the deadline has passed. No withdrawals are permitted after the last class preceding the final exam. Students who do not obtain an official withdrawal, but simply stop attending class receive an "F" grade for the course.

UF (unearned F) Grade:

This notation is awarded to students who were enrolled in a course, did not officially withdraw, but who failed to participate in course activities through the end of the term. It is used when, in the judgment of the instructor, completed assignments and/or course activities were insufficient to make normal evaluation of academic performance possible. Students who receive this notation will have reported on their behalf a "last date of participation" by the assigning faculty member. When saved on the grade roster, this notation will immediately convert to a regular grade of F on the student's transcript. It will be punitive and count in the GPA. The UF notation is used for internal reporting and will not appear on the student's transcript.

Digication:

All students are required to maintain a learning portfolio in Digication that uses the (Three Rivers) College Template.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of another person's words or ideas in your writing. If you use any ideas, thoughts, writing, quotes, or even paraphrase some other writer's thinking, you must acknowledge that person. Whether conscious or unconscious, plagiarism is a serious academic offence. Consequences for plagiarism can range from failing the assignment to failing the course.

Disabilities:

If you have a disability that may affect your progress in this course, please meet with a Disability Service Provider (DSP) as soon as possible. Please note that accommodations cannot be provided until you provide written authorization from a DSP.
