Through a semester long project we will practice practical skills such as media literacy and critical thinking, while exploring concepts such as intellectual curiosity and ethics. This course is designed to emphasize self-reflection about your academic goals as well as class discussion and the exchange of ideas. You must come to class prepared to participate.

Course Rules and Guidelines:

Some simple rules to live by (if you want a good grade):

1. Arrive on time and stay for the entire class.
2. No more than 2 absences (after that it affects your grade).
3. No late assignments.
4. Be respectful of your classmates and the professor.
5. Use the writing center.
6. Participate in class.
7. Read and abide the college's academic honesty policy.
8. Do not wait until the last minute to read the assignments.
9. Study!
10. Ask for help!

College Withdrawal Policy:

A student who finds it necessary to discontinue a course MUST complete a withdrawal form obtained from the Registrar's Office. Students may withdraw from class anytime during the first ten weeks of the semester without being in good standing or obtaining permission of the instructor. After that period, a student wishing to withdraw must obtain written authorization of the instructor to receive a "W" grade for the course. Students who fail to properly withdraw, and discontinue coming to class, will be assigned an "F" grade. Eligibility for refund of tuition is based upon date of withdrawal through the registrar's office. Verbal withdrawals will not be accepted.

Learning Disabilities:

If you have a disability that may require classroom or test-taking modifications, please see the professor as soon as possible.

Cell Phones:

Except for potential personal emergencies (and with prior permission of the instructor) all cell phones will be turned off at the start of class.

Academic Integrity:

Any form of cheating, including plagiarism, will result in the immediate failure of the assignment and an official report to academic officials. Any additional acts of dishonesty will probably lead to failure of the course. Please see me if you are unsure what constitutes plagiarism.

College Closings/Cancelled Classes:

In the event of foul winter weather, the college will post announcements on the main website, the phone answering service, and through local media sources. I will do my best to contact you via e-mail if I am unable to attend class for whatever reason.

Late Assignments:

All assignments turned in after the due date will be graded pass/fail. This means that the best grade you can get is a 65. It is in your best interest to get your assignments completed on time.

Extra Credit:

I do not normally allow students to complete extra credit assignments, however, I have a unique opportunity for this semester and further explanation will be given in class.
