Furthermore, academic dishonesty erodes the legitimacy of every degree awarded by the College. In this class and in the course of your academic career, present only your own best work; clearly document the sources of the material you used from others; and act at all times with honor.” See TRCC Student Handbook. A student's written work is expected to be original and done independently unless otherwise indicated. Footnotes and references must be used to acknowledge the source and avoid plagiarism.

Selected portions of the nursing curriculum are taught, reinforced, or reviewed through the use of educational software/instructional media: e.g., videotapes, computer programs, audio cassettes, filmstrips, online learning activities, etc. Students must sign an Ethics Statement regarding the use of these materials and agree to follow the policies outlined in the Statement. The signed Ethics Statement is retained in each student's record.

Violations of academic integrity will be referred to the Academic Dean and dealt with in accordance with the college policy on Academic Integrity.

See Nursing Student Handbook

Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of another person’s words or ideas in your writing. Whether conscious or not, plagiarism is a serious offense. Evidence that you did not write material that you submit under your name can result in failure for the entire course. Refer to College Catalog for policy. Students are expected to:

Demonstrate academic integrity by not engaging in conduct that has as its intent or effect the false representation of a student’s academic performance, including but not limited to: (a) cheating on an examination; (b) collaborating with others in work to be presented, contrary to the stated rules of the course; (c) plagiarizing, including the submission of others’ ideas or papers (whether purchased, borrowed, or otherwise obtained) as one’s own; (d) stealing or having unauthorized access to examination or course materials; (e) falsifying records or laboratory or other data; (f) submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course; and (g) knowingly assisting another student in any of the above, including an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination, or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed.
