COURSE DESCRIPTION

Basic elements, functions, and principles of advertising are surveyed. Students study current advertising campaigns and marketing communication methods in addition to creating their own comprehensive campaigns. Target marketing, image creation and ethical aspects of advertising are discussed. Selection of print media, broadcast media, social and interactive media and supportive promotional techniques are included. The emphasis is on advertising's role as a marketing communication tool.

TEXT:

Arens, William, CONTEMPORARY ADVERTISING (14th EDITION), New York, N.Y., McGraw-Hill, 2013.

ISBN # 9780078028953

Additional readings will be assigned as current advertising examples require.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Utilizing various learning activities, each student will accomplish the following outcomes by completing this course:

- a. demonstrate a mastery of the basic principles, concepts and terminology of today's advertising activities;
- b. develop an awareness of the importance of advertising in a competitive, consumer-oriented society;
- c. develop an understanding of advertising as a marketing communications tool in the domestic and global business environment;
- d. be able to use specific advertising vocabulary to discuss advertising activities;
- e. demonstrate a grasp of the procedures involved in the creative process of advertising;
- f. utilize technology as a resource in planning and preparing ads;
- g. discuss career opportunities in the field of advertising;
- h. participate in the decision process of advertising creation and presentation.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

The student will be responsible for attendance, classroom participation, assignments, four quizzes, a mid-semester exam, a team term project and a final exam. The course work will consist of text reading, group discussions and decisions, ad campaign cases, social media sources, lectures, and student experiences to illustrate concepts. The term project will consist of a team advertising campaign presentation utilizing learning from the course. Requirements for this project will be distributed on a separate sheet after the mid-term exam. Its planning will take place using some class time and some out-of- class time during the second half of the semester.

NOTE WELL:*GRADING POLICY:

The final grade will consist of the following factors:

4 Quizzes	30%
Class participation, Attendance and Ad campaign contribution, including peer input	10%
Term Project (group grade)	10%
Mid-semester Exam	25%
Final exam	25%
	100%

Four quizzes will be given and the lowest grade will be dropped. You must take all 4 quizzes to be able to drop one.

Absence from a quiz will result in a 0 grade on that quiz..

NO MAKE UP QUIZZES! NO EXCEPTIONS! THIS MEANS YOU!

I do not accept doctor's notes. I do not evaluate excuses. If you miss a quiz, that is the one that is dropped. If you miss 2 quizzes, one is a zero grade.

Failure to attend class on the day of your group's scheduled presentation will result in a ZERO for that presentation for the absent member. Any problems relating to the completion of assignments must be discussed with me in advance.

Digication – TRCC Online Learning Portfolio: All students are required to maintain an online learning portfolio using a TRCC designed template. Students will upload at least one assignment from this class to Digication. Further guidance will be provided.

ABSENCE POLICY

If you are not here, you are not participating. Absence in excess of three class meetings will reduce your final grade and must be discussed with the instructor individually. Excessive absence OR failure to participate fully in class discussions, ad campaign planning and class learning activities will result in the lowering of the final 10% class participation grade. I do not accept doctor's notes or evaluate excuses.

Arriving late or leaving early from class will count as a partial absence. (1/4). It is recommended that you e-mail the instructor if you will be absent for more than one class meeting.

COLLEGE WITHDRAWAL POLICY

After the add/drop period and before December 8, 2014 a student may withdraw from a course by obtaining a "Withdrawal Request Card" from the Registrar and requesting the instructor's signature. A grade of W, which does not affect QPA or class standing is recorded on the student's transcript to indicate formal withdrawal. Failure to withdraw officially from a course may result in an F grade and/or academic probation. No student can receive a grade of INC. (incomplete) unless he/she has officially requested it in writing. This option must be discussed with the instructor before the final exam and approved by the Dean of Instruction.

Use of current advertising examples is highly recommended. For some topics the student is required to submit examples of ads from sources (on-line, print and/or broadcast) to illustrate elements of advertising currently studied. The contributions made to the class discussions from these examples will favorably affect the student's class participation grade. These examples can be from traditional media and social media and do not need to be from professional journals.
