XI. Evaluation Procedures

Your final grade will be determined by a combination of exams, a research paper, and class participation.

Reaction Papers	300	(15 at 20 points each)
Research Paper	300
Paper Presentation	100
Attendance	300	(30 meetings at 10 points each)
	1000

Research Paper: The paper must be at least eight but no more than ten pages long. A topic approval form must be submitted to the instructor by September 16th. The paper must have at least five references; one reference must be from an academic journal the rest must be from academically acceptable sources. The paper will be a comparative study of the U.S. criminal justice system to another country as selected by the student.

Late papers will be penalized 10 percentage points per week or part thereof.

The paper will be in APA style and will be written in Times New Roman 12 point type with standard margins. The paper will include a cover page that notes the title of the paper and all the relevant course and student information. Failure to use the APA format will result in an automatic 25 percentage point reduction in the paper grade.

The paper presentation will be 15 to 20 minutes long. A rubric for the presentation portion of the grade will be provided in class.

Grades: All grades will be posted on Blackboard. The grades will be expressed in a point value. For example: an exam is worth 300 points, a grade of between 0 and 300 points will be recorded. The total amount of points earned during the semester will correspond to the grade scale listed below.

X. Final Grade Scale

XI. College Withdrawal Policy

Students may withdraw from a course by December 8th, by completing a withdrawal form. The form must be submitted to the Registrar's Office.

XII. Instructor's Attendance Policy

Consistent attendance at class meetings is crucial to success in this course. You are expected to attend all classes in order to receive full benefit from instruction. As a seminar based course it is imperative that you attend and participate in the discussions. You are allowed two missed class sessions for a total of three hours of class time. Missed classes in excess of the two allowed, will result in a 10 point reduction in the attendance portion of your grade per absence.

XIII. Academic Dishonesty

Conduct which as its intent or effect the false representation of a student's academic performance and/or knowingly and intentionally assisting another student to do so in any way constitute academic dishonesty. In the event of academic dishonesty, the College's policy will be enforced.

XIV. Electronic Devices etc.

Students are notified that cellular phones are allowed in class or in the Learning Resource Center only if they are turned off or turned to a silent mode. Under no circumstances are phones to be answered in class. When there are extenuating circumstances that require that a student be available by phone, the student should speak to the instructor prior to class so that together they can arrive at an agreement.

XV. Digication Portfolio

All students are required to maintain an online learning portfolio in Digication that uses the college template. Through this electronic tool students will have the opportunity to monitor their own growth in college-wide learning. The student will keep his/her learning portfolio and may continue to use the Digication account after graduation. A Three Rivers General Education Assessment Team will select and review random works to improve the college experience for all. Student work reviewed for assessment purposes will not include names and all student work will remain private and anonymous for college improvement purposes. Students will have the ability to integrate learning from the classroom, college, and life in general, which will provide additional learning opportunities. If desired, students will have the option to create multiple portfolios.
