SPRING 2007

COM 173---INTRODUCTION TO SPEECH COMMUNICATION

Course Description: Students will learn the fundamentals of speech communication. They will learn to develop, deliver, discuss, and provide feedback to presentations of increasing complexity. Emphasis will be placed on organization, analysis, and elements of speech delivery, including effective verbal and non-verbal aspects of communication.

LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR COM 173

Upon successful completion of COM 173, students will be able to:

- Compose and deliver several primary types of speeches of increasing length and complexity (Introduction, Entertaining, Informative, Motivational, and Persuasive Speeches), representing an increasing development of critical thinking skills and delivery sophistication.
- Develop, research, and compose speech outlines according to formal outlining techniques.
- Analyze, recognize, and incorporate the appropriate, formal argument models and patterns of logic for each given speech.
- Devise, compose, and utilize appropriate speaking notes to facilitate and enhance the delivery of speeches.
- Utilize both verbal and non-verbal strategies to effectively communicate with audience during speech presentations.
- Understand the importance of audience analysis and demonstrate an ability to be aware of and utilize audience feedback during speech presentations.
- Use audio and visual aids, including PowerPoint, where appropriate, to enhance speech presentations.
- Document information obtained through research using MLA format.
- Analyze and provide productive, useful, and constructive critique of peer speech presentations.
