Course Description

Please see the TRCC course catalog for official description; the instructor's description follows.

Principles of Management, BMG K-202, is a study of the fundamentals of management theory and practice with an emphasis on their application in the global marketplace. This course uses case analysis as the primary means of introducing the student to the terminology, language, practice and application of the material presented in the text.

Learning Outcomes

Principles of Management is designed to introduce the student to the characteristics and practices of general managers presented in a format structured around the topics of planning, organizing, staffing, leading and controlling. Actual cases provide the basis for the clarification and application of chapter content presented in the text. Upon successfully completing the course, students should be able to:

- identify and apply the appropriate text language, terms and concepts to the case;
- identify factual content in the case;
- infer relevant content from the case's description of the situation, personalities and issues;
- identify additional data and information applicable to addressing case issues; and
- define an appropriate course of action to address the issues(s) raised by the case.

Performance (Grade) evaluation

Students will be evaluated using the following with related points applied to computing the final grade:

Exams (lowest grade dropped) _____ 50 points (600 points raw score)

Team Class Participation _____ 50 points (600 points raw score)

(Includes written reports)

Attendance

No points are earned for just attending; however class participation does will require your presence in class. An attendance sheet containing the names of all currently registered students will be distributed No points are earned for just attending; however class participation does will require your presence in class for the student's signature within approximately 15 minutes of the start of each class and will be available during class.

IF YOU DO NOT SIGN THE ATTENDANCE SHEET ON THE DATE OF THE CLASS YOU DID NOT ATTEND THAT CLASS!

This sheet will be the only evidence of attendance in this course and will be used to document your attendance for financial aid or other externally required purposes. It may also be used to substantiate the reason for a poor or failing grade performance.

Grading

THERE ARE NO MAKE-UP OR EXTRA-CREDIT OPTIONS

One exam grade (the lowest grade), excluding the final exam grade will be dropped to accommodate an unanticipated absence; students may omit the final exam if they have accumulated 93 or more points.

TESTS WILL BE DISTRIBUTED AND COLLECTED ON THE DATES SHOWN IN THE INCLUDED COURSE ASSIGNMENT SHEET OR AS MAY BE ANNOUNCED IN CLASS. NO ASSIGNMENT WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER THE CLASS FOLLOWING THE ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED DUE DATE WITHOUT MAKING PRIOR ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE INSTRUCTOR. You may return a test after the designated due date but no later than the beginning of the class in which the graded test is returned ONLY IF you make appropriate arrangements with the instructor PRIOR TO OR WITHIN 24 HOURS of the class during which the test is distributed. Notice may be provided by e-mail or phone message. Written case analysis will not be accepted after the due date without prior arrangements with the instructor.

Your grade will be determined based upon a possible 1,200 point accumulation, 600 points from the highest three of the four test grades (200 per test) and 600 points from classroom preparation and participation. Your total points will be divided by 1,200 and that percentage converted to its decimal equivalent and the resulting numeric value converted into a letter grade according to the following:

LETTER	BASE	-	+
A	93 -100	90 - 92	NONE
B	83 - 86	80 - 82	87 - 89
C	73 - 76	70 - 72	77 - 79
D	63 - 66	60 - 62	67 - 69
F	BELOW 60 POINTS

Team based classroom participation: Students will randomly be assigned to either three or four person teams (depending on total enrollment) on or about the third class day. Each week one member of the team will be assigned as the team captain and will be accountable for the team's performance that week and for any written assignments due that week. Each team member will be a team captain at least three times and will have at least one written case analysis assignment. Working as a team is a critical skill in today's work place and students are expected to develop the necessary team building and integrating skills. Students unwilling or unable to work with their assigned team may be reassigned (based on course drop-outs) but will be penalized 50 of the 600 points available for class participation.

Due Dates

Due dates are as shown in the attached assignment sheet(s) and are subject to change. Changes will only be announced in class. The student is responsible for maintaining currency on all assignment due dates. If a class is cancelled for some reason, expect to do the work and turn in any assignments associated with the cancelled class in the following session. The student may obtain an assigned test by postal mail (e-mail corrupts some content and may therefore not be available) and may return an assigned test by postal mail if and only if arrangements, including the student's mailing address, have been made with the instructor sufficiently far in advance (at least one week). The date of the e-mail will constitute the submission date. Only students having previously submitted a disability release will be granted any accommodation (generally extended time or relocation) for in-class assignments. No accommodation will be given for take home assignments.

Academic Honesty

All students are expected to adhere to the institutional policies pertaining to student conduct as describe in college catalog. Each graded assignment will include the following statement: "I have neither given nor received any assistance from or to any source or person not authorized by my instructor." Signed (and your signature). Violation of this agreement will result in the immediate removal from this course and a grade of F.
