Course Description

The student will focus on the safe use, pharmacological principles, indications and nursing implications related to drug therapy when caring for individuals and families. Emphasis will be placed on medications used with clients experiencing endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed. The course will stress the general characteristics of selected medications and will include indications, pharmacokinetics, side effects, adverse effects, contraindications, administration, nursing implications across the lifespan, and client education.

Course Objectives

At the completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Integrate pharmacological principles as they relate to holistic and clinical medication application when caring for a client with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
2. Apply the nursing process to drug theory as it relates to clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.

3. Describe safe and competent medication administration as it relates to clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
4. Develop a comprehensive pharmacological teaching plan for clients endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
5. Interpret cultural and individual awareness when tailoring drug therapy to clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
6. Differentiate the roles of the multidisciplinary health team members when implementing a pharmacological plan of care for clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
7. Analyze the legal-ethical implications of medication administration related to clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
8. Examine the professional role of the nurse in medication administration for clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.

FACULTY INFORMATION:*Nancy Scrivano, MSN RN*Office C242*Phone 860-228-1189 emails nscrivano@trcc.commnet.edu.

In general, faculty may be contacted for course/lesson concerns via Blackboard email within the course. Faculty response time may vary, but in general allow up to 48 hours for a response.

Students may accomplish learning activities prior to their assignment on the course calendar, but students must be aware that faculty assigned to content will be responding during the time the content is scheduled to be covered on the course calendar. All students must participate in each lesson during the week within which it is assigned.

Discussion Boards Students are encouraged to ask questions on the discussion boards and may answer each other's questions. The Discussion Boards are used as a communication tool. If you have a question of a personal nature, you may use email. Tutors within the nursing lab are available on some campuses during the summer during set office hours. Students are encouraged to be proactive in their learning and seek help independently. The Nursing Lab and Nursing Tutors are in place to promote success and retention. Students are encouraged to utilize these independent opportunities weekly.

Methods of Instruction

This course is taught completely online. Teaching modalities include online lecture, power point, discussion groups and case studies. Computerized programmed instruction and interactive learning tools are also used. Blackboard is used as the learning management tool. If the learner is experiencing computer/ Blackboard related issues please consult the IT department or distance learning specialist on your campus.

Required Textbooks: (textbooks are used in subsequent courses)

1. Deglin, Davis Drug Guide for Nurses (11th edition) F.A. Davis, 2008.
2. Lehne, Pharmacology for Nursing Care, with CD (6th edition) Saunders, 2007.

Class Examinations

Exam I	Week of	6/28/10 to 7/4/10	30%
Exam II	Week of	7/19/10 to 7/25/10	30%
Exam III	Week of	7/31/10 to 8/4/10	30%
Additional Assignments	4 med sheets	(2.5 points each)	10%

1) Drug Classification Drug Sheets – A much easier way to learn the actions of medication is to study them by classification instead of by individual drugs. Using the form posted on the home page complete 5 sheets on five different drug classification categories. One from each of the 4 main categories – cardiac, endocrine, GI and psych. Each drug sheet is worth 2.5 points. All four drug sheets must be submitted to the Discussion Board labeled “Med Sheets”. Due dates are posted on rsch Discussion Board. Cardiac due 6/27, Endocrine due 7/18, GI due 7/25, and psych due 8/1. All due by 23:59 on the due date.

Grading Policies

To pass Nursing 202 and progress in the nursing program a student must:

- Earn at least a 74 average in the course. Test items are drawn from ALL content of the course.

Grading Rubric for Medication Sheets

Category for Grading	Level of Response with Maximum points achievable	Level of Response with Maximum points achievable	Level of Response with Maximum points achievable
Quality of information in Medication Sheet	Medication sheet focuses on the drug classification identified and relates all pertinent concepts to the categories listed on the Medication Sheet. Information is clear and concise and includes references to support details and/or examples. Posting consistently uses correct grammar and spelling.	Medication sheet focuses on the drug classification identified but is missing at least 1 pertinent concept of the categories listed on the Medication Sheet. Information is clear and concise but is lacking references to support the details. Postings have one to three errors in grammar and spelling.	Medication Sheet focuses on the drug classification but lacks depth and a clear understanding of the key concepts in the drug classification. Information is not referenced. Postings have greater than three errors in grammar and spelling.
Max. total points	2.5	1.0	0

- Evaluation activities reviewed:
- Theory: In N202 there will be three 60 minute exams (with 40 questions on each exam). The exams are open book format. Four additional assignments (med sheets) will be graded with the above rubric.

Course Schedule and Sequencing of Content: Please refer to the course content outline attached, for more detailed content information and learning activities.

CLASS PROCEDURES AND POLICIES

Progression through online lessons: Students are expected to adhere to the course schedule as published in this document. The sequence of content in NUR*202 is

Late Medication Sheets

Late submission of assignments will be penalized with a 1 pt per day grade deduction for each day late.

Nursing Program Policy Handbook

Refer to the Nursing Program Policy Handbook and the Three Rivers Student Handbook for additional information regarding Distance Learning Courses.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to log on, complete work and participate in the course each week. It is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor if they are not able to log on. Instructor will track student participation in the course.

Testing Policy

For each exam the student will be required to contact the course instructor if an emergency arises and the student can not take the exam during the scheduled exam week. It is the student's responsibility to contact the course faculty before the due date to make alternate arrangements (follow missed exams as outlined in the Handbook).

Procedure for Taking Examinations:

All exams will be conducted online through BB Assessment feature. Exams are due by 11:59 PM on the final posted date the exam is scheduled.

COURSE GRADING

Nur*202 Course Grading Criteria Based Upon a Total of 100 Points
Item	Maximum Points per item	Total Number of Items	Maximum Possible Points
Three Examinations	30	3	90
Other assessment methods (Med Sheets)	2.5	4	10
			100 points

Course Grading Formula

A-	90-92
B+	87-89
B	83-86
B-	80-82
C+	77-79
C	74-76
C-	70-73
D+	67-69
D	64-66
F	60-63

Please Note: Grades will be computed to the second decimal point and at the end of course will be rounded once to a whole number for the final course grade. A grade at or above .50 will be rounded up to the next whole number; any grade at or below .49 will be rounded down to the whole number. See Nursing Student Handbook, p 15.

Statement on Penalty for Academic Dishonesty or Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of another person's words or ideas in your writing. Whether conscious or not, plagiarism is a serious offense. Evidence that you did not write material that you submit under your name can result in failure for the entire course. Refer to 2008-2009 College Catalog for policy. Students are expected to: "Demonstrate academic integrity by not engaging in conduct that has as its intent or effect the false representation of a student's academic performance, including but not limited to: (a) cheating on an examination; (b) collaborating with others in work to be presented, contrary to the stated rules of the course; (c) plagiarizing, including the submission of others' ideas or papers (whether purchased, borrowed or otherwise obtained) as one's own; (d) stealing or having unauthorized access to examination or course materials; (e) falsifying records or laboratory or other data; (f) submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course; and (g) knowingly assisting another student in any of the above, including an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination, or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed." Consequences are delineated in the College Catalog.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY:

Students may withdraw, in writing, at the Registrar's Office for any reason until the end of the 10th week of classes. From the 11th week through the end of the 13th week, a student may withdraw with the signature of the instructor or advisor. Refer to the Nursing and College Student Handbooks and College Catalog. This course does not offer midterm theoretical warning grades. Students with concerns about their course average are encouraged to contact the course faculty.

Continuation in the nursing program to NUR*203 and NUR*204 is contingent upon successful completion of this course.

DISABILITIES STATEMENT:

If you have a hidden or visible disability which may require classroom or test-taking modifications, please see the course faculty as soon as possible. If you have not already done so, please be sure to contact the college Disabilities Coordinator. Also see the College Catalog for additional policies and information.
