FALL 2011

COURSE DESCRIPTION

ASL K101 AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE I

This course introduces the student to American Sign Language, the language used by the Deaf Community in the United States. This course covers fundamentals of the basic structure of ASL grammar, vocabulary, fingerspelling/numbers, and visual gestural communication, and the instruction of Cultural aspects of Deafness.

GOALS & OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of Sign language I, students will be competent, receptively and expressively, in the following areas by:

- Demonstrate the ability to select, produce, and use appropriate sign vocabulary for clear and accurate communication.
- Apply the appropriate grammar and syntax by using facial expression and body language to communicate in sign language effectively.
- Develop understanding of Deaf culture, differences between Deaf and hearing cultures and insight of the experiences of being deaf when communicating in a hearing world.

MATERIALS

- Required Text: Learning American Sign Language (2nd edition) – Tom Humphries & Carol Padden.
- Supplemental materials will be provided by the instructor.
- Videos and supplementary materials used in class.

PROCEDURE

- 1 Classroom instruction of language component.
- 2 Modeling of target language.
- 3 Practice using target language in and outside of class.
- 4 Interaction with native users of target language.
- 5 In-class discussions, activities and presentations.
- 6 Off campus activities with written papers.
- 7 Quizzes & Exams

METHOD OF EVALUATION

Students gain proficiency / mastery at different rates. Each student is capable of achieving proficiency / mastery in ASL and will be given every opportunity to do so.
All assessments are cumulative.

1 Participation – 30%

In order to learn sign Language, one MUST participate in using it. I recognize that there are extenuating circumstances, if there is an issue with being able to attend class, please contact me. Attendance will be recorded. Students will be allowed 1 unexcused absence from class. Upon the second absence, you will receive a zero for a grade for that class, and any subsequent classes that are missed.

2 Midterm and Final – 30%

Exams will be cumulative. Both the expressive and the receptive skills of students will be tested. Each exam will include a written section on theory. Missed exams will be rescheduled at the discretion of the instructor.

Midterm – 10%
Final – Flash mob 15%
- Cultural Event 5%

3 Quizzes – 20%

Quizzes will be used to assess your weekly progress and to show you where you need to focus your energy. There will be 6 quizzes. Each quiz will include receptive skills, questions on the correct usage of ASL as well as Deaf Culture information provided in class and found in your textbook. Three of the quizzes will require an expressive component be completed. These expressive portions will be videotaped and handed in on via USB or DVD. Expressive quizzes will cover Units 1 – 4, 5 – 8, and 9 – 12.

4 TV Viewing Papers – 5%

Each student is required to watch two television shows. Each show watched must be at least ½ hour long. Please watch shows that you are not familiar with. Neither volume nor closed captioning may be used for the entire show. You may pick shows related to the news, comedy show, documentary, or drama/action. SPORTING EVENTS, CARTOONS, “HOW TO” SHOWS, GAME SHOWS AN THE LIKE ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE VIEWING CHOICES After watching each show, a paper is to be written describing your experience. Each paper is required to be at least 1-1/2 page typed, double spaced, using the following guidelines:

- Each paper is a representation of YOUR thoughts, YOUR feelings or beliefs, YOUR impressions, YOUR frustrations, YOUR successes and why.
- How has this experience / activity impacted you?
- How will you use this information?
- Does this information / activity change the way that you think?
How and why?
- Papers will be graded on spelling and grammar.

Papers that do not satisfy the above requirements will be given back to the student to correct and will receive no credit until the criteria are satisfactorily completed.

5 Essay – 5%

During the course of the semester, articles will be handed out and available on blackboard. You are to use these articles to assist with writing an essay. There are two categories of papers. Some are serious documentations of particular topics and others are less serious and often perceptions or experiences from Deaf individuals. Pick one paper from each category for the essay to compare and contrast. All papers will be graded on grammar and spelling.

The focus of the essay could be one of the following:

- How did this information change or impact the deaf/Deaf community?
- How you feel this information impacts the deaf/Deaf community in the 21st century?
- How do you think the deaf/Deaf community feels about this topic?

6 Presentation – 10%

Students are required to give a presentation in sign language. This presentation may be on any topic of your choice. Presentation must be at least 2 minutes long and no longer than 3 minutes. The goal of the presentation is to be visual and expressive. Presentations will be videotaped.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPECTATIONS AND INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE:

Class begins promptly at 6:30 p.m. and procedures will not be delayed to accommodate late comers. Students are expected to attend all classes. If you choose not to attend it will affect your grade. Consistent practice of using American Sign Language is of utmost importance if students are to master the language. Therefore, students will be expected to spend time outside of class practicing the language of native signers so that they can practice what they learn in class. Any public library will have or be able to obtain videos and books on ASL through inter-library loan.

COLLEGE WITHDRAWAL POLICY

Students may withdraw, in writing at the Registrar's Office for any reason until the end of the 10th week of classes. NOTE: You will need your instructor's signature if you decide to withdraw at the end of the 10th week.

PLAGIARISM

In order to support the process of promoting academic integrity at Three Rivers, any student who plagiarizes work from an outside source or from another student in the class will receive a failing grade for the assignment. I will also follow the process which is outlined in the Student handbook for anyone who is suspected of Academic dishonesty.
