Course Description:

As a cornerstone for all other business courses, this course places business in perspective. It surveys business topics in a contemporary manner and offers students a good foundation in how business operates in our capitalistic society today. The course provides a conceptual understanding of general business management, human resources, marketing, finance and controls.

Course Objectives:

- To examine how business institutions operate in our modern, political, social and economic environment.
- To provide a general background in the elements and characteristics of business enterprise.
- To provide an atmosphere in which you can relate personal business experience and philosophies.
- To clarify the many aspects of business functions such as ethics, management, organizations, personnel, marketing, finance.
- To broaden your understanding of the American free enterprise system.
- To expand and enrich your business vocabulary.
- To create an awareness of the varied career opportunities in business and aid in selecting a vocation or enhance the vocation already selected.

- To review the methods and procedures used by people in business to arrive at effective decisions.
- To assist in your personal development by practicing critical thinking and communications skills.

Your participation on the web site, discussion board, and in the virtual classroom is considered very important. To demonstrate your participation, visit the web site frequently, take practice exams, and utilize the discussion board and virtual classroom frequently. Class participation will count 10% of your final grade.

Honor Code:

During this course all assignments (quizzes, written reports, & exams) will be the sole responsibility of the student. The student must adhere to a strict honor code and agree that all work is their own. Reports and exams are not to be collaborative efforts. Students must agree to write their own papers and take the exams according to the rules set fourth.

Withdrawal Policy:

A student who finds it necessary to discontinue a course must complete a "Withdrawal Request Form" in the Registrar's office. Students may withdraw from class without the instructor's signature through the tenth week of class. The signature of a faculty member or advisor is required from the beginning of the eleventh week until the end of the thirteenth week. Students who do not withdraw, but stop attending will be assigned an "F" signifying a failing grade. Eligibility for a refund of tuition is based upon the date of withdrawal when received by the Registrar. Verbal withdrawals cannot be accepted.

Disabilities Statement:

If you have a hidden or visible disability which requires classroom or test-taking modifications, please see me as soon as possible. If you have not already done so, please be sure to register with John Perch, Disabled Student Counselor
