3/27 Exam Due Review Student syllabus planning process

Students complete the syllabus through strategic planning sessions

Essay on Cross Cultural Communication: 10%

Students will read and analyze materials in packet and synthesize into essay form

Essay on Self: 10%

Discuss with a person close to you how they perceive your presentation of self. Within that conversation discuss how that person perceives your ability to communicate effectively. Reflect on these questions:

- 1. How do you choose to be seen by others?
- 2. Do they see you as you would choose to be seen?
- 3. Will this persona work effectively within the many divergent arenas you will find yourself in as you become part of a Criminal Justice Profession?
- 4. What do you plan to do this semester to become more aware of self and an effective communicator?

Reflective writing/ Planning Process 10%

Exam: 20%

Remainder of assignments and grade points to be determined as part of the Strategic Plan.

College Withdrawal Policy

Withdrawal

An administrative transcript notation used to indicate that a student is withdrawn from a course in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the College. The deadline for Withdrawal Spring 2012 is May 7, 2011

*Instructor's Attendance Policy************

Consistent attendance at class meetings is crucial to success in this course.

You are expected to attend all classes in order to receive full benefit from instruction.

Gratuitous cutting is strongly discouraged. Your instructor will counsel you to withdraw if you exhibit poor attendance and or punctuality. Poor attendance is defined as anything beyond 6 hours of class. You are urged to contact your instructor prior to missing a class. YOU are responsible for all lecture or class notes and all work missed during your absence. YOU are encouraged to get contact information from a classmate to ensure you have access to all missed material.

Academic Dishonesty

Definitions of Academic Dishonesty General Definition

(Student Discipline Policy, section 2:10, Board of Trustees of Connecticut Community Colleges)

Academic Dishonesty shall in general mean conduct which has as its intent or effect the false representation of a student's academic performance, including but not limited to (a) cheating on an examination, (b) collaborating with others in work to be presented, contrary to the stated rules of the course, (c) plagiarizing, including the submission of others' ideas or papers (whether purchased, borrowed, or otherwise obtained) as one's own, (d) stealing or having unauthorized access to examination or course materials, (e) falsifying records of laboratory or other data, (f) submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course, and (g) knowingly and intentionally assisting another student in any of the above, including assistance in an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed.

Academic Dishonesty in a Service Learning, Practicum, Internship, Co-operative, or Fieldwork environment

Conduct in community settings entered by a student as part of coursework must be equally characterized by integrity and honesty. Dishonest conduct proscribed under this policy includes but is not limited to (a) making false statements to community partners about the student's skills, credentials and accomplishments, (b) making false statements to community partners or the instructor about progress in the work the student has agreed to do in the community, including supplying false documentation of work, (c) failing to abide by the rules and policies of the community partners that the student agreed to accept as a condition of entrance into the community setting, (d) failing to return materials belonging to the community partner or instructor (e) violating the ethical principles common to professional researchers, including violation of confidentiality or anonymity agreements with research subjects, deceiving or harming research subjects, or coercing participation in research

Cellular Phones and Beepers

Students are notified that cellular phones and beepers are allowed in class or in the Learning Resource Center only if they are turned off or turned to a silent mode. Under no circumstances are phones to be answered in class. When there are extenuating circumstances that require that a student be available by phone or beeper, the student should speak to the instructor prior to class so that together they can arrive at an agreement.

Early warning notification:

Students experiencing academic difficulty and/or chronic absenteeism will be notified of their class standing.
