Course Description: This course will focus on the fundamentals of speech communication. Students will learn to listen to, prepare, deliver and critique various types of verbal presentations. Emphasis will be placed on organization as well as on actual speech delivery. Verbal and non-verbal communication aspects will be addressed.

Learning Outcomes for COM 173: Upon successful completion of COM 173, students will be able to:

- > Compose and deliver several primary types of speeches of increasing length and complexity (Introduction, Entertaining, Informative, Motivational, and Persuasive Speeches), representing an increasing development of critical thinking skills and delivery sophistication.
- > Develop, research, and compose speech outlines according to formal outlining techniques.
- > Analyze, recognize, and incorporate the appropriate, formal argument models and patterns of logic for each given speech.
- > Devise, compose, and utilize appropriate speaking notes to facilitate and enhance the delivery of speeches.
- > Utilize both verbal and non-verbal strategies to effectively communicate with audience during speech presentations.
- > Understand the importance of audience analysis and demonstrate an ability to be aware of and utilize audience feedback during speech presentations.
- > Use audio and visual aids, including PowerPoint, where appropriate, to enhance speech presentations.
- > Document information obtained through research using MLA format.
- > Analyze and provide productive, useful, and constructive critique of peer speech presentations.

Required Text:

Gregory, Hamilton; Public Speaking for College and Career, New York, NY; McGraw-Hill Publishing, 2008 (Eighth Edition)

Procedures: Lectures will be minimal---student involvement and participation will be maximal. Students will be responsible for the following:

1. (70-75% of the grade) Individual/ Group Presentations (8 per student):
 - Introductory Speech (1 minute)
 - Object Presentation (2 minutes)
 - Family Roots Presentation (5 minutes)
 - Group Chapter Presentation (15-20 minutes)
 - Informative Speech (6-10 minutes)
 - Persuasive Speech (6-10 minutes)
 - Two Impromptu Speeches (3 minutes)
 - Informal In-Class Speaking Activities(various lengths)
2. (10% of the grade) Critique Activities (oral and written)
3. (15% of the grade) Tests (1 quiz, 1 midterm, and 1 final exam)
4. (5% of the grade) Attendance/Being Ready on Assigned Dates

The above percentages are approximate

Grading Method: In this course, you will have the opportunity to participate in activities designed to improve your communication skills. All the activities will have a point value. List of these activities and point values are attached. In order to participate in the activities, you must be present in class the day of the activity. Because communication involves your interaction with others, no class activities can be made up outside of class, and no extra work is assigned as make-up work for any missed activities.

Written assignments handed in late receive no credit! NO EXCEPTIONS

Anyone who does not come to class on their assigned speech/presentation day (without first having put a message on my voice mail or email prior to class) or comes to class with an excuse for not presenting their talk that day (and does not let me know prior to my entering the room)...will automatically have 5% of the potential points deducted from their grade. NO EXCEPTIONS.

All class days after your appointed day until you actually give your talk are considered days that your speech presentation is due, and an additional 5% of the potential points will be deducted for each class (missed or attended) until the speech/presentation is given. Above referred to “prior excuses” are allowed only once a semester.

Possible: 600 points. A 45-point cushion is built into the final grading system in case of a missed class, poor performance on a test or presentation, etc.

Final Grade: (points)

600-555	A
554-540	A-
539-525	B+
524-495	B
494-480	B-
479-465	C+
464-435	C
434-420	C-
419-405	D+
404-375	D
374-360	D-
Below 360	F

Definitions of Grades

A	Excellent
B	Good
C	Satisfactory (Average)
D	Poor
F	Unsatisfactory

Attendance: Although attending every class will not guarantee an “A” or “B”, or even a “C;” it will be impossible to earn a decent grade if classes are missed. No class activity done by the class can be made up, and extra credit is not assigned.

College Withdrawal Policy: “Students may withdraw, in writing at the Registrar’s Office for any reason until the end of the 10th week of class. From the 11th week through the end of the 13th week, a student may withdraw with the instructor’s written approval. This instructor will be forced to give student an “F”(college policy), if a student stops attending this class and does not formally withdraw with the Registrar.

Eligibility: Students must have completed and/or scored into ENG 100 to be eligible for this class. Those who scored into ENG 094 should not take this class.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of another person’s words or ideas in one’s own writing or oral presentations. The definition will be discussed in class, but the essential principle is that a person is not to quote, paraphrase, rephrase, or otherwise include the ideas of someone else without giving the proper credit. If a student violates this principle, (s)he will receive a penalty ranging in severity from an “F” on the assignment to an “F” in the course.

Disabilities Statement: If you have a question regarding a disability that may affect your progress in this course, please contact one of the college’s Disability Service Providers as soon as possible. Chris Scarborough (892-5751) generally works with students who have learning disabilities or ADHD. Judy Hilburger (892-5744) generally works with students who have physical, visual, hearing, medical, mobility, and psychiatric disabilities. Matt Liscum (383-5249) also works with students who have disabilities.

Contacting Instructor: The most expedient method of getting a message to me is via email and/or voice mail.

If you wish to leave an assignment in my mailbox, it is located on the Mohegan Campus in the Shipping/Receiving Dept .

Additional Information/Reminders:

1. You must be present in class to participate in the class activities.
2. No class activities can be made up outside of class.
3. No extra, individual work is assigned to make up for students’ absences, inability to complete assignments, etc.
4. It is important to be to class on time. If you arrive late, and another student is speaking, please wait outside until the student is finished. You may enter if the instructor is talking.
5. All class activities must be completed in class with classmates on the same day.
6. Written assignments passed in after the due date - receive no credit.
7. Written assignments are due at the beginning of class on each due date. They cannot be completed in class.
8. Any student caught cheating in this course automatically receives a failing grade.
9. You are responsible for keeping an accurate record of all of your points.
10. Keeping up with class assignments is your responsibility—even if you are not in class when an assignment is given. A class roster will be prepared so you can stay in touch with your classmates for assignments.
11. This will be a fun course.
