Attendance:

Classroom attendance is an integral part of the college experience. The faculty of the college believes that regular class attendance is necessary for a student to derive the maximum benefit from the learning experience and the overall value of the classroom instruction. The instructor reserves the right to issue an "F" if a student has more absences per semester than the number of times the class meets per week. There are some degree and certificate programs with special attendance policies that must be satisfied due to licensing requirements. Students should refer to the program handbooks. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor in the event of absence.

Students with Disabilities:

To receive accommodations in class a student must make an appointment with the Learning Disability Specialists, Mr. Chris Scarborough or Judy Hilburger who will justify the special modifications that are needed to facilitate learning for the student. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to ask me for help.

Academic Honesty / Plagiarism Policy:

Academic dishonesty is prohibited in accordance with the Board of Trustees' Proscribed Policy in section 5.2.1 of the Board of Trustees' Policy Manual. This policy prohibits cheating on examinations, unauthorized collaboration of assignments, unauthorized access to examinations or course materials, plagiarism and other proscribed activities. Plagiarism is defined as the use of another's idea(s) or phrase(s) and representing that/those idea (s) or phrase(s) as your own, either intentionally or unintentionally. If you are caught plagiarizing I will dismiss you from the class with a zero grade and report you to the dean.

Withdrawal Policy:

The last day to withdraw from this course is May 11. If you must withdraw from this course, it is your responsibility to go to the Registrar's office and fill out the correct form. If you are thinking about withdrawing, please talk to the instructor as soon as possible.

Class Cancellation Procedure:

If class is cancelled or delayed because of the weather, certain radio and television stations will carry an announcement. If I am unable to attend class, the Arts & Humanities Division Office will advise students of alternate learning activities.

Late Work:

Students are required to hand in all work, typed and on time. All work that is not turned in at the scheduled day and time is considered late. Students will have a 24 hour grace period to hand in late work which will receive 50% reduction. Response papers and questions will automatically be deducted by 10 pts. Students are to deliver a copy to my mailbox in the English dept labeled "late work" in the upper left hand corner with the date. After 24 hrs, no late work will be accepted and students will receive a zero for the assignment. No emails of late work will be accepted.

Engaging the Text Questions:

Students are required to answer the "engaging the text" section of questions located after each assigned reading for 10 pts. Questions must be typed and answered in complete sentences providing critical analysis of the subject matter. Students are only required to answer this section unless otherwise specified. Questions are to follow all MLA guidelines

Response Papers:

Students are required to hand in a 2 (full) page response paper on assigned reading. Response papers are to be typed in Times Roman font, 12 pt. and stapled. They are to also follow MLA guidelines. Papers that do not follow the above guidelines will not be accepted. Response papers are not summaries. They are a critical analysis of the reading. Response papers should reflect how you, the reader reacts or responds to a particular argument; or overall response to the author's topic (thesis). Students are required to complete 2 drafts of response papers for each author assigned. Each draft will consist of 20 pts, for a total of 40.

Essay Exams

Students will be responsible of completing 2 essay exams (mid-term and a final) which will consist of a 5-7 (full) page essay practicing the components of an argumentative essay using the Toulmin model and MLA guidelines. Essays will be counted as exams and therefore must be handed in on assigned dates. Essays that are not will receive a zero. There are no submissions of late essay exams. No exceptions.
