Office Hours: MW 1:00-2:00 and Friday 12:00-1:00

Welcome to “Literature and Composition,” English 102. In this course we will focus on how to read serious literature, develop an interpretation of what we read, and then explain and support our interpretations in writing. The objective of the course is to develop critical thinking and writing skills. In the process of developing these skills, we will focus on the three genres of fiction, poetry, and drama from a thematic approach to understand the interpretive elements in the text and the conditions that affect the reader. During the semester, you will also be given instruction in composition and will be required to write frequently.

Prerequisite: ENG 101*

EXPLANATION OF ASSIGNMENT AND GRADES

ESSAYS (60)%: During this session you will be required to write four formal essays. As my expectations increase, so will the grade percentage awarded for each essay. The essay assignments will be handed out in class and will focus on the thematic units we will have been reading and discussing.

PEER REVIEW (10%): Before turning in your essay, you will be required to develop a formal typed draft of your essay to bring to class for a peer review workshop (along with copies of your draft to share with your peers). (Number of copies is designated on syllabus.) This draft should be the best essay you can write and should be completed with the assigned amount of pages typed. In class you will be assigned into groups, where you will be responsible to give feedback to your peers based on the requirements I will explain and hand out during that class period. After you receive written input from your peers, it is expected you will then revise your essay. You will be graded on how effectively you review your peers' essays. If you miss a peer review day or come to class without a fully typed draft for review and the required amount of copies, you will not be able to participate in peer review and it will affect your grade negatively. (You will not be allowed to leave class to go make copies. You must be prepared at the beginning of class.) Finally, when you turn in your final paper, you will need to place it in a pocket folder with the original essay (before peer review), the peer reviews, and your final essay to be graded.

Paper Format: All formal essays should follow MLA format guidelines: double-spaced (not triple or two-and-a-half spaces), one-inch margins, and size 12 fonts. Be forewarned that if you include extra spaces between paragraphs or type in extra large margins or fonts, etc., your paper will be returned without a grade or it will affect your grade negatively. Pet Peeve: Sloppy papers.

CLASS PARTICIPATION (30%): Your participation (or lack of) in class will affect your final grade. (Expect to work in class by being prepared to participate in large and small group work, do in-class writing assignments, and take quizzes.) *Missed assignments cannot be made up.

OTHER POLICIES

Deadlines: There is no such thing as late work. If you have an emergency, please contact me to make other arrangements. Only in a documented emergency will I accept email submissions, which must be approved ahead of time. Late essays will be given either a pass (C) or a fail (F).

Attendance: In order for the class to be successful it is important that you attend regularly. If you must miss class, please remember that you will still be held accountable for the material covered in class and all assignments that are due that day. (An excused absent includes, for example, illness and/or injury and requires written verification.)

Late Arrivals: Please be in class on time. Within the first five minutes of class I will take attendance. If you arrive after five minutes, I will mark you late, which will affect your final grade.

Breaks: Unless it is an emergency, refrain from leaving the class at all times. Doing so is disruptive and will affect your grade negatively.

Academic Integrity: Academic integrity is essential to a useful education. Failure to act with academic integrity severely limits a person's ability to succeed in the classroom and beyond. Furthermore, academic dishonesty erodes the legitimacy of every degree awarded by the College. In this class and in the course of your academic career, present only your own best work; clearly document the sources of the material you use from others; and act at all times with honor.

Tutoring: Three Rivers has an excellent writing center located next to the library, C117. Receiving help through email is also available. Include your name, student ID, and a brief explanation of the assignment and send your work as an attachment to TRWritingCenter@trcc.commnet.edu. (Do not wait until the last minute.)

Students with disabilities: Any student with a hidden or visible disability which may require classroom modifications should see me about her/his disability within the first week or two of class. I will ask you to see one of the learning disabilities counselors on campus so we can work together to implement an appropriate plan to meet your needs. For more information see http://www.trcc.commnet.edu/Ed_Resources/Learn_Dis.htm

Cell phones: School regulations require that all cell phones be turned off in learning environments. If it is imperative for you to be available by cell phone, please speak to me before class. (No text messaging during class.) (If your phone goes off or you are caught text messaging, there will be a consequence!)

Class cancellations: If class is cancelled, a notice will be posted outside the door. I will also try to send out an email, so make sure your email address is current and in your personal records. School cancellations due to bad weather will be posted on the TRCC homepage and also recorded on the school's main phone number: 860-886-0177.
