Attendance: Mandatory, but if no more than two absences the entire semester, then you will receive 5 points on one test grade

MyMathLab: You are expected to complete and score a 70 on MML “tests” associated with each section on the quiz that you scored below a 70. If completed, you will receive 5 points on one test grade.

OR

Never Missed a Quiz AND Never Scored Below 70 on a Quiz: You will receive 5 points on one test grade

Tutoring (log on back): Get tutoring, have the sheet filled out and signed with tutor/contact phone number each time. Then, at the end of the semester, you will receive between one and 5 points on one test

Additional attendance in other classes (of mine): Counts as tutoring; have me complete and sign tutor sheet for each additional class you attend. Ask me for rooms/times.
