

Three Rivers Community College

Spring 2011

Joyce D. Martin, Ph.D., M.S.W.

HSE K101

jmartin@trcc.commnet.edu

Introduction to Human Services

Course Description:

This course is designed to familiarize the student with the current theory and knowledge related to human services. The course will include a survey of the helping professions including a history of social welfare and human services agencies. The course will include guest speakers and an opportunity to observe human service organizations. The students will be expected to complete ten (10) hours of service learning in the community.

Required Text(s):

Popple & Leighninger. Social Work, Social Welfare and American Society. Boston, MA: Allyn & Bacon (2008).

Shelman & Lazoritz. Out of the Darkness: The Story of Mary Ellen Wilson. 2000.

Learning Outcomes

- . Demonstrate understanding of basic social welfare concepts;
- . Understand the differences between and among competing ideological perspectives that may influence the social welfare policy-making processes;
- . Demonstrate understanding of current social problems (poverty, mental illness, homelessness, child maltreatment, crime and criminal justice, racism, class and gender-related issues, aging, and others;
- . Enhanced understanding of the historical evolution of the modern social welfare system from 1348 - present;
- . Knowledge of and application of values and principles of the social work profession;
- . Enhanced critical thinking skills for current social welfare issues;

Course Assignments:

Assignment #1

Each student is to complete a ten (10) hour service-learning assignment at a not-for-profit, social service organization in the community-at-large. A typed, three (3) page report on the assignment is required.

Due Date: Thursday, March 3, 2011

Assignment #2

Submit a 4-5 page report on the Mary Ellen Wilson story. The paper will include a brief summary of the story and a detailed discussion of four (4) specific lessons society learned or should have learned from this 19th century case of child abuse and neglect.

Due Date: Thursday, March 17, 2011

Assignment #3

Mid-term Examination

TBA: _____

Assignment #4

A final position paper on the history of the social welfare system, beginning with its English roots and evolving to the present time in America. All papers must have a theoretical framework (liberal, conservative or radical perspective) from which the reader explains discussions in the paper. All assignments will result from the independent work of each student. All papers will have a bibliography with at least 12 references that are properly cited and referenced in the body of the paper. Papers are to be 10-12 pages in length. All papers will have the following title:

Poverty from 1348-Present: The English Roots of Social Welfare from a _____ Perspective

Due Date: Thursday, May 5, 2011

Policy Statements

Disability Statement:

TRCC welcomes students with disabilities and strives to make their college experience a successful learning experience. Students with disabilities are guaranteed reasonable accommodation under the provisions of the American with Disability Act of 1992. Disclosure is voluntary. Discuss directly with instructor. For more information, contact the Student Development Center.

Cellular Phones:

Students are notified that cellular phones and beepers are allowed in class or in the Learning Resource Center only if they are turned off or on a silent mode. Under no circumstances are phones to be answered in class. When there are extenuating circumstances that require that a student be available by phone or beeper, the student should speak to the Instructor prior to class, so that together, they can arrive at an agreement. Texting is not allowed in class.