Course Description

The student will focus on the safe use, pharmacological principles, indications and nursing implications related to drug therapy when caring for individuals and families. Emphasis will be placed on medications used with clients experiencing endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed. The course will stress the general characteristics of selected medications and will include indications, pharmacokinetics, side effects, adverse effects, contraindications, administration, nursing implications across the lifespan, and client education.

Course Objectives

At the completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Integrate pharmacological principles as they relate to holistic and clinical medication application when caring for a client with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
2. Apply the nursing process to drug theory as it relates to clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.

3. Describe safe and competent medication administration as it relates to clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
4. Develop a comprehensive pharmacological teaching plan for clients endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
5. Interpret cultural and individual awareness when tailoring drug therapy to clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
6. Differentiate the roles of the multidisciplinary health team members when implementing a pharmacological plan of care for clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
7. Analyze the legal-ethical implications of medication administration related to clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.
8. Examine the professional role of the nurse in medication administration for clients with endocrine, respiratory, gastrointestinal, cardiovascular conditions and selected mental health disorders. Medications associated with bioterrorism will also be addressed.

FACULTY INFORMATION:

Nancy Scrivano, MSN RN

Office C242

Phone 383-5250

emails nscrivano@trcc.commnet.edu In general, faculty may be contacted for course/lesson concerns via Blackboard/Vista email within the course. Faculty response time may vary, but in general allow up to 72 hours, Monday – Friday for a response during the week that the faculty member is teaching course content.

Should you need to contact any faculty member outside of their teaching time about course concerns please utilize their TRCC email (firstname.lastname@trcc.commnet.edu) or college phone number as noted above.

Students may accomplish learning activities prior to their assignment on the course calendar, but students must be aware that faculty assigned to content will be responding during the time the content is scheduled to be covered on the course calendar. All students must participate in each lesson during the week within which it is assigned.

Study Groups

Students are encouraged to form study groups which can meet at a mutually agreeable location. Tutors within the nursing lab are available on some campuses also during set office hours. Students are encouraged to be proactive in their learning and seek help independently. The Nursing Lab and Nursing Tutors are in place to promote success and retention. Students are encouraged to utilize these independent opportunities weekly.

Methods of Instruction

This course is taught completely online. Teaching modalities may include online lecture, power point, discussion groups, case studies, medication classification sheets, or teaching plans. Computerized programmed instruction and interactive learning tools are also used. Blackboard Vista is used as the learning management tool. If the learner is experiencing computer/ Blackboard related issues please consult the IT department or distance learning specialist on your campus.

Required Textbooks: (textbooks are used in subsequent courses)

1. Deglin, Davis Drug Guide for Nurses (11th edition) F.A. Davis, 2008.
2. Lehne, Pharmacology for Nursing Care, with CD (7th edition) Saunders, 2010.

Evaluation activities

Evaluation in Nursing 202 is via three 50 minute exams (with 40 questions on each exam). The exams are open book format. In addition, there is a teaching plan worth ten points. To pass Nursing 202 and progress in the nursing program a student must earn at least a 74 average in the course. Test items are drawn from ALL content of the course.

| F            | 60-63                |

Please Note: Grades will be computed to the second decimal point and at the end of course will be rounded once to a whole number for the final course grade. A grade at or above .50 will be rounded up to the next whole number; any grade at or below .49 will be rounded down to the whole number. See Nursing Student Handbook, p 15.

Statement on Penalty for Academic Dishonesty or Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of another person's words or ideas in your writing. Whether conscious or not, plagiarism is a serious offense. Evidence that you did not write material that you submit under your name can result in failure for the entire course. Refer to 2008-2009 College Catalog for policy. Students are expected to: "Demonstrate academic integrity by not engaging in conduct that has as its intent or effect the false representation of a student's academic performance, including but not limited to: (a) cheating on an examination; (b) collaborating with others in work to be presented, contrary to the stated rules of the course; (c) plagiarizing, including the submission of others' ideas or papers (whether purchased, borrowed or otherwise obtained) as one's own; (d) stealing or having unauthorized access to examination or course materials; (e) falsifying records or laboratory or other data; (f) submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course; and (g) knowingly assisting another student in any of the above, including an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination, or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed." Consequences are delineated in the College Catalog.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY:

Students may withdraw, in writing, at the Registrar's Office for any reason until the end of the 10th week of classes. From the 11th week through the end of the 13th week, a student may withdraw with the signature of the instructor or advisor. Refer to the Nursing and College Student Handbooks and College

Catalog. This course does not offer midterm theoretical warning grades. Students with concerns about their course average are encouraged to contact the course faculty.

Continuation in the nursing program to NUR*203 and NUR*204 is contingent upon successful completion of this course.
