COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to prepare the student for professional selling of products, services, and ideas. It concentrates on the mutual satisfaction of buyers and sellers and the role of the salesperson. Topics studied include the communication process, customer service, sales territory management, and the seven steps in the selling process: prospecting, approach, presentation, demonstration, handling of objections, closing and follow-up. Practical application of these concepts in industrial sales, consumer sales, public service selling, and political campaigns are also studied through case studies, role-playing and student participation exercises.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Utilizing various methods of student participation, projects and testing, the students will demonstrate the following outcomes and skills by completion of this course of study:

- a. a mastery of the basic principles, concepts and terminology of professional selling activities;
- b. develop an understanding of personal selling as a marketing communications tool;
- c. be able to use specific professional techniques to handle objections and close a sale in sales presentation examples;
- e. demonstrate a grasp of the importance of good communication skills in professional selling;
- f. explore current job opportunities and sales career positions in the field of professional selling by using Internet websites;
- g. develop a professional sales presentation utilizing the seven steps, a service attitude and effective communication skills.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The student will be responsible for attendance, classroom participation, written and oral assignments (including role playing), four quizzes, a mid-semester exam, a term project and a final exam.

The course work will consist of assigned reading material, group discussions and decisions, analyses of cases and ethical dilemmas, lectures, research on Internet websites and utilization of student experience to illustrate concepts and examples.

The term project will consist of an individual sales presentation demonstrating learning from the course.

NOTE WELL: GRADING POLICY

The final grade will consist of the following factors:

4 Quizzes	20%
Attendance and Class Participation	10%
SALES OUTLINE	10%
PROFESSIONAL SALES DEMONSTRATION	10%
Mid-semester exam	25%
Final exam	25%
	100%

Four quizzes will be given and the lowest grade will be dropped.

No make up quizzes will be given for any reason. I do not evaluate excuses.

*Absence from a quiz will result in a 0 grade on that quiz.

*Any problems relating to the completion of assignments or taking of exams must be discussed with the instructor in advance.

ABSENCE POLICY

After a total of three absences, the class participation grade will be penalized. If you are not here, you are not participating. Excessive absence OR failure to participate fully in class discussions and decisions will result in the lowering of the final class participation grade.

Arriving late or leaving early from class will count as a partial absence. (1/4)

COLLEGE WITHDRAWAL POLICY

After the add/drop period and before the last week of the semester, a student may withdraw from a course by obtaining a "Withdrawal Request Card" from the Registrar. A grade of W, which does not affect QPA or class standing is recorded on the student's transcript to indicate formal withdrawal. Failure to withdraw officially from a course may result in academic probation.

A student will not be given an incomplete grade unless that is requested in writing before the final exam. Such a request must also be approved in advance by the Dean of Instruction.

TERM PROJECT

The student will receive a separate assignment sheet detailing the requirements for the term project. It will be distributed during the second half of the term and will include due dates.

Failure to attend class on the day of your sales presentation OR failure to submit the outline IN ADVANCE will result in a zero grade for your presentation.
