CATALOG COURSE DESCRIPTION

Prerequisite: ENG K101 or ENG K101s placement or completion of ENG K096 with a "C#" grade or better and any 100 level humanities or social sciences course.

This course is designed to introduce students to graphic design. Topics include: proper file management, Macintosh computer navigation basics, fundamental techniques of the design process, and digital plagiarism. Students will learn to create a graphic identify through proper typography, image editing, and page layout. Graphic design industry standard software will be used, including adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign. Classes consist of lectures, demonstrations, applied practice, and critiques.

LEARNING OUTCOMES The course goal is for students to:

1. Develop a working knowledge in software applications used in the field of Graphic Design including Adobe Photoshop Illustrator, InDesign and Acrobat Pro.
2. Learn file management and Mac computer navigation basics.
3. Study page design, typography and image editing for publication design.
4. Learn about digital plagiarism.
5. Read and report on Graphic Design topics.

Evaluation and Grading Policies:

Late assignments or make-up work is not allowed.

There is NO extra-credit work.

Any course work which is emailed to the instructor will be deleted and given a zero.

1000 point grading system breakdown:

10% (5 points each) – 20 Discussion Questions (DQs)

20% (varying points) – Quizzes

40% (30 points) – Graphic Design Assignments

10% (100 points) – Graphic Design Report

20% (200 points) – Final Project

Attendance Policy:

Attend all classes. Any course work presented during class time cannot be made up.

Incompletes: I do not give Incompletes. They are only assigned when there are extenuating circumstances such as a life-threatening illness that prevent the student from completing the coursework on time. Incompletes must be approved by the Academic Dean.

Withdrawal Policy: If you intend to withdraw, you must do so at the Registrar's Office by the college deadline, which is listed on the TRCC website.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism: Plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated and will result in an automatic failing (F) grade on the assignment for the first infraction and, should it occur a second time, an automatic failing (F) grade for the course.

Digication:

All students are required to maintain an online learning portfolio in Digication that uses the college template. Through this electronic tool students will have the opportunity to monitor their own growth in college-wide learning. The student will keep his/her learning portfolio and may continue to use the Digication account after graduation. A Three Rivers General Education Assessment Team will select and review random works to improve the college experience for all. Student work reviewed for assessment purposes will not include names and all student work will remain private and anonymous for college improvement purposes. Students will have the ability to integrate learning from the classroom, college, and life in general, which will provide additional learning opportunities. If desired, students will have the option to create multiple portfolios.

 The instructor may change the syllabus, the order of topics and/or the content of the assignments to meet the needs of the class at any point in time.

Statement of Policy for Public Act No. 14-11: An Act Concerning Sexual Assault, Stalking and Intimate Partner Violence on Campus

BOARD OF REGENTS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION AND CONNECTICUT STATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES POLICY REGARDING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT REPORTING, SUPPORT SERVICES AND PROCESSES POLICY

“The Board of Regents for Higher Education (BOR) in conjunction with the Connecticut State Colleges and Universities (CSCU) is committed to insuring that each member of every BOR governed college and university community has the opportunity to participate fully in the process of education free from acts of sexual misconduct, intimate partner violence and stalking. It is the intent of the BOR and each of its colleges or universities to provide safety, privacy and support to victims of sexual misconduct and intimate partner violence.”

Statement of Policy: United States Department of Education and Office of Civil Rights

Title IX

“Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs and activities in federally funded schools at all levels. If any part of a school district or college receives any Federal funds for any purpose, all of the operations of the district or college are covered by Title IX.

Title IX protects students, employees, applicants for admission and employment, and other persons from all forms of sex discrimination, including discrimination based on gender identity or failure to conform to stereotypical notions of masculinity or femininity. All students (as well as other persons) at recipient institutions are protected by Title IX – regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, part-or full-time status, disability, race, or national origin-in all aspects of a recipient’s educational programs and activities.”

If any student experiences sexual misconduct or harassment, and/or racial or ethnic discrimination on Three Rivers Community College Campus, or fears for their safety from a threat while on campus, please contact Maria Krug, the Diversity Officer and Title IX Coordinator. Her office is in C-131.

Students with Disabilities: If you have a disability that may affect your progress in this course, please meet with a TRCC Disability Service Provider (DSP) in Room A-119 as soon as possible. Please note that accommodations cannot be provided until you provide written authorization from a DSP.
