Course Description: This course provides an overview of the criminal justice system in the United States. Students will be exposed to the system's components: law enforcement, courts, and corrections from historical, theoretical, and philosophical perspectives. Students will have the opportunity to interact with criminal justice professionals and be challenged in both reading and writing.

Goals and Objectives:

1. Analyze and understand diverse social, political, historical, and cultural institutions and trends and the impact on the evolution and dynamics of the criminal justice system.
 - A. Examine the effect of historical events and trends on the development of the system.
 - B. Evaluate the impact that social, political, and cultural institutions have on individuals and the system: past, present, and future.
2. Recognize the relationship of the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights on the daily lives of citizens.
 - A. Understand the role of the executive, judicial, and legislative branches of government and how they effect change in the criminal justice system.
 - B. Distinguish between common law and statutory law and describe how each is used in the system.
3. Analyze and evaluate argumentation and persuasion to evaluate, improve, refine, and refute it.
 - A. Acquire and analyze information to determine its quality and utility.
 - B. Recognize parallels between and among disciplines and apply knowledge, skills, or abilities learned in one discipline to another.
 - C. Utilize inductive and deductive thought processes.
4. To assess what information is needed to answer questions and solve problems and to retrieve, evaluate, and use that information effectively.
 - A. Identify information needed to answer questions.
 - B. Access information efficiently.
 - C. Evaluate information and its sources for specific purposes.
 - D. Apply ethical, social, and legal principles when accessing and using information.
5. Understand and convey ideas in diverse context using reading, writing, speaking, and listening.
 - A. To comprehend and evaluate written passages.
 - B. To write clearly.
 - C. To speak clearly.
 - D. To understand lectures, arguments, and other speech.

Essay #1: TOPICS

SINGLE SOURCE ESSAY: USE ONLY YOUR TEXT BOOK FOR INFORMATION

1. The challenge for any democracy is balancing individual rights with public order. Write an essay that describes this challenge facing the criminal justice system and provide examples of how that challenge may impact the system. APA format and citations are expected.
2. Discuss the history of Victim’s Right Legislation and the involvement of the victim in the Criminal Justice process. Explain your response. APA format and citations are expected.
3. Distinguish between restorative justice and retributive justice. APA format and citations are expected.

Essays should be brief and succinct. They should have a well-developed introduction, transitional or bridge sentences, as well as supportive detail sentences. A conclusion should restate your intent. If you are uncertain about writing an essay please see me for more specific direction or avail yourself to the writing center or TASC services. Be sure they are word processed and include both internal citation and a work cited page. APA format is required.

Essay #2: Research and Oral Presentations:

Students will be required to research a section of the Courts (TBA in class) and then present findings to class. This will be a group activity. The teaching of the court section belongs to you as a group. The group will submit an APA research paper at the time of their presentation. I will be available for questions and to provide information on resources. More discussion will take place in class.

Essay #3: Research and Oral Presentations:

Students will select an area of Corrections that they would enjoy researching. This will be an individual activity. The student will work during the semester to put the work together; gather research and present a short oral presentation on their topic. We will work on these periodically during class time. Much more information will take place during class time. Each student is responsible for completing an APA research paper based on their research and upload to digication. Each student will supply a hard copy of their paper at the time of their presentation.

Writing Issues: All work will be reviewed for proper APA format. Students who are unclear about when and how to apply APA should speak with me or seek assistance of the tutoring center or writing center. This certainly will be discussed in class as well.

NO LATE ASSIGNMENTS ACCEPTED.

Statement Regarding Digication and Assessment

All students are required to maintain an online learning portfolio using a Three Rivers Community College designed template; e-portfolio / digication.

Please be advised that the Three River's General Education Assessment Team will select random works from the student submissions.

Criminal Justice Students are urged to select the privacy level restricted to viewable by self or viewable by Three Rivers Community. Avoid placing your documents on the internet.

You will locate the e-portfolio / digication tutorial by assessing the:

TRCC homepage

Clicking the link to learning resources

Scrolling to e-portfolio / digication icon.

You will enter essay #3 into e-portfolio / digication.

Please submit proof of submission with your essay.
