PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of another person's work or ideas in your writing. It is often known as copying word for word. However, even paraphrasing without acknowledgement or using the ideas of peers garnered from class discussion or a study group is considered plagiarism. Whether it is conscious or unconscious, plagiarism is a serious academic offense. Your writing for this course, and any other course at TRCC is expected to be original, the product of your own thinking.

A student who has plagiarized will receive a ZERO on that assignment, and will be reported to both the Academic Dean and Student Services Dean where disciplinary action can be taken.

DISABILITIES STATEMENT

Students with disabilities are guaranteed reasonable accommodation under the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1992. Disclosure of a disability must be voluntary. In instances where students have disabilities that are not discernible, valid and reliable documentation to verify eligibility for accommodation is required and must be submitted to the Student Development offices of Student Services. Please call 215-9017 for more information or to schedule a confidential meeting with one of our disability service providers.

TITLE IX STATEMENT

Statement of Policy for Public Act No. 14-11: An Act Concerning Sexual Assault, Stalking and Intimate Partner Violence on Campus: "The Board of Regents for Higher Education (BOR) in conjunction with the Connecticut State Colleges and Universities (CSCU) is committed to insuring that each member of every BOR governed college and university community has the opportunity to participate fully in the process of education free from acts of sexual misconduct, intimate partner violence and stalking. It is the intent of the BOR and each of its colleges or universities to provide safety, privacy and support to victims of sexual misconduct and intimate partner violence."

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND OFFICE OF CIVIL RIGHTS TITLE IX STATEMENT OF POLICY: "Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs and activities in federally funded schools at all levels. If any part of a school district or college receives any Federal funds for any purpose, all of the operations

ATTENDANCE

Class attendance is expected and vital. You will be allowed two (2) absence; any additional unexcused absences will greatly hinder your ability to pass the course making withdrawing from the class recommended.

If you miss a class, you will be responsible for getting the information/materials covered in that class and the completion of any assignments that were due, or assigned for the following week.

TECHNOLOGY STATEMENT

The use of cell phones, laptops, texting instruments and/or any other technological device is not permitted. Please do not answer/make a call or answer/write a text in class during class time. If you wish to use a laptop for note taking, please see the instructor.

GRADING CRITERIA

This course demands active involvement in learning experiences accompanied by reading and writing activities that capture those experiences. The nature of the courses content requires critical thinking skills to be learned, developed, and applied. The following criteria will be used in evaluating your grade:

Participation/Individual Meeting- Students are expected to come to class prepared and actively participate in discussions and group work in a way that enhances and adds positively to the learning environment. Civil tolerance and acceptance of other student’s thoughts, ideas and beliefs is expected.

Oral Presentations- Over the course of the semester each student will make at least three (3) oral presentations. Your grade with this criterion will be determined by the Non-Academic Goal presentation that you will give at the end of the semester.

Tests/Quizzes- During the semester there will be four (4) tests all scheduled in advance, and at least one (1) unscheduled quiz. The tests and quiz will be composed of the following: multiple choice, true-false, short answer, matching, and essay questions. If for any reason you are absent from class on the day of a test or quiz, you can take that test or quiz at the end of the semester during finals week.

TRCC Function Participation- Each student will participate in at least one TRCC sponsored event or function and write a reaction paper on it. In advance, for approval, the student must submit in writing the event/function that will be attended by. Unless other arrangements are made, this reaction paper will be due on 12/10/19. No email submissions, physical copy required.

Assignments/Portfolio- All students are required to maintain a learning portfolio in Digication that uses the (Three Rivers) College Template. All reading and writing assignments (unless told otherwise) are due one week after they are assigned. All writing assignments must be typed utilizing MLA format, and each assignment must be completed on time and at a satisfactory level. Unsatisfactory work will be returned and must be corrected before the following week class meeting in order to satisfy the assignment. No email submissions, physical copy required.

Educational Plan- This five part assignment will help you design a realistic plan for accomplishing your coursework and educational goals. You will learn and experience the college student/advisor relationship by working with your advisor to complete this plan. Details of the assignment will be passed out in class, and your Educational Plan portfolio is due on 11/26/19.

GRADE CRITERIA VALUES

Participation/Individual Meeting- 5%
Oral Presentations/Group Project- 15%
Tests/Quizzes- 40%
TRCC Function Participation- 10%
Assignments- 15%
Educational Plan- 15%

COLLEGE WITHDRAWAL POLICY

The deadline for students to withdraw from a class is November 5, 2019. Before withdrawing from any course please speak with your instructor and be aware of the positive and negative consequences of that action.

Not attending class is not dropping or withdrawing from a class.

December 15, 2019 is the last day of classes for the semester.
